

You're Invited!

Pastor Rob and Debbie Jones invite you to accompany them to a world-class bible conference in Chicago!

The Moody Bible Institute Founders Bible Conference Week of February 2, 2020

- We will travel by Amtrak train overnight, boarding Sunday night (9:51pm) in Huntington.
- On Monday (free day) you can visit the world class museums of Chicago or shop the Magnificent Mile on Michigan Avenue. Take a tour of the third largest and hardest working city in the U.S., or go with Rob to the Oriental Institute, a hidden gem.
- Stay in a great hotel for $79/night (free shuttles to the conference). The conference is free.
- The Founder's Week Conference a free, week-long Bible conference on Moody Bible Institute's Chicago campus in the mornings, and at the historic Moody Church in the evenings. Come to sessions to hear today's foremost Christian teachers and leaders and catch a fresh vision for making God's Word the center of your life. Worship with new musical artists, and connect with students, alumni, and guests from around the world.
- Go with Pastor Rob and Debbie to the beautiful gothic Judson Baptist Church that he pastored in Chicago in the 1980s.
- Bundle up! It will be bitter cold, but the worship will be awesome! Pastor Rob graduated from Moody (Master's in Pastoral Theology, 1987). Moody Bible Institute has sent more missionaries around the world and provided more martyrs for the faith than any institution of learning in history.
- We will return by overnight train, arriving Friday morning Feb. 7 at 7am.
- Don't miss out! Text Rob today at 304.633.8011 to get on the travel list or receive information.
