PALM SUNDAY

This morning's message will be brought to us by Janet Anderson.

Today we remember and celebrate Palm Sunday, the day thousands of years ago when Jesus entered Jerusalem to throngs of celebrating people (John 12:12-19). In light of what is to come during this next week in history, we will explore the movement of these crowds from proclamations of "Hosanna" to "Crucify him!". We will also look at the life of Peter and his journey from praise to denial, recognizing this rhythm as one we all face. Thankfully, the story does not end there however - we conclude with Christ's response to Peter after his Resurrection.

St. Peter
By Malcolm Guite

Impulsive master of misunderstanding
You comfort me with all your big mistakes;
Jumping the ship before you make the landing,
Placing the bet before you know the stakes.
I love the way you step out without knowing,
The way you sometimes speak before you think,
The way your broken faith is always growing,
the way he holds you even when you sink.
Born to a world that always tried to shame you,
Your shaky ego vulnerable to shame,
I love the way that Jesus chose to name you,
Before you knew how to deserve that name.
And in the end your Saviour let you prove
That each denial is undone by love.

PRAYER MATTERS

We pray for the ministry of our English Language Learners Classes. We give thanks for the faithful volunteers and the students who come to learn English but who also hear about God. We pray that the students continue to be receptive to the gospel message, particularly this month when the focus is on the story of Easter. We remember the students who have received English/Chinese Bibles - that God's word will not come back void. We are thankful for the Christian students in the Monday morning class who can translate when needed, and ask for a Chinese/English interpreter for the Thursday class. We are grateful to be able to minister to our community through the ELL classes.
