LOGOS HOPE UPDATE

The Logos Hope team arrived safely in Veracruz, seeing some delays with the ship clearing through customs. Upon their arrival, they were welcomed with a brief introduction to the ship, followed by the official opening ceremonies the next morning. This was attended by the mayor of Veracruz, state officials, port officials, and lots of representatives from the media. The ship officials gave a very good introduction to the message the ship brings. The team has received instructions on what they can and cannot say; foreigners cannot proselytize, but Mexicans can. We pray for wisdom as they navigate how to engage with the people they encounter.
