Principles to Remember for Yourself and in Serving Others (Part 3 of 4)

STEWARDSHIP: 1 Peter 4:10 “As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God’s varied grace.”

The earth belongs to the Lord, it is all His! We are the stewards of His resources for His glory. We are meant to use His resources to fulfill God’s purposes in the world.

GROWTH: 2 Peter 1:5-7 For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge; and to knowledge, self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness; and to godliness, mutual affection; and to mutual affection, love.

God wants us to grow in our relationship with Him. He does not want us to just believe but to possess a desire to grow as well. When we are first saved, we are infant Christians and we have to seek to grow and mature in God’s word so that we can be disciples for Christ.

BUILDING COMMUNITY: Romans 12:4-5 “For just as each of us has one body with many members, and these members do not all have the same function, so in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others.”

Psalms 133:1 “How good and pleasant it is when God’s people live together in unity!”

God never intended for us to live life alone. Christian communities should radiate the good news of Christ and God’s love for everyone. He wants us to form a Christian community to surround us with compassion and encouragement to lighten our load, strengthen us and give us the courage to keep trying.

Go and make disciples of all nations —Matthew 28:19

Call to Worship Scripture

2 Peter 1:5-7

For this very reason, make every effort to add to your faith goodness; and to goodness, knowledge; and to knowledge, self-control, perseverance; and to perseverance, godliness; and to godliness, mutual affection; and to mutual affection, love.

Praise Factory A.M.

Beulah offers a unified service that serves the whole family during the 10:45 Morning Worship service. Children, ages 3 years through 5th grade, will be dismissed during the "handshake meet and greet" to go to Praise Factory A.M., our term for a Sunday School class on their learning and age level. Praise Factory P.M. begins at 5:00 and continues teaching on the child's level.

You Tell on Yourself

You tell on yourself by the friends you seek,
 By the very manner in which you speak,
 By the way you employ your leisure time,
 By the use you make of dollar and dime.
 You tell what you are by the things you wear,
 By the spirit in which your burdens bear,
 By the kind of things at which you laugh,
 By the records you play on the phonograph.
 You tell what you are by the way you walk,
 By the things of which you delight to talk,
 By the manner in which you bear defeat,
 By so simple a thing as how you eat.
 By the books you choose from the well-filled shelf;
 In these ways and more, you tell on yourself.

WANTED!

This is an urgent request

Children's workers for Praise Factory AM, during Sunday morning worship service are needed.

Our classes are overloaded and we are in need of teachers, pairs of teachers and helpers. The children in grades 3-5 are learning how to use their Bibles. We especially need some teachers who can help with this age group. Please let Cindie Whitley know if you would like to help with this ministry.

THE IMPORTANCE OF COURTESY

Knowledge, ability, experience are of little avail in reaching high success if courtesy be lacking. Courtesy is the one passport that will be accepted without question in every land, in every office, in every home, in every heart of the world. For nothing commands itself so well as kindness, and courtesy is kindness.

My Investment of the Dash

Lately many folks are writing about the “dash” on the tombstones. Below the person’s name is engraved the year of birth on the left and then to the right of that is the year of death. In between is the little dash. It is tiny in size comparison; however, it is huge when considering the fact that our entire life is found within that dash —

There’s much more to the simple dash,
That goes beyond the line.
It is the entire life God has given,
For none of it really is mine.

It really won’t matter the size of my house,
Nor even the amount of my cash.
But what will count for all eternity, my friend,
Is how I’ve invested my dash!

An Important Life Lesson:

Always remember that everyone is important to God.

During my second month of nursing school, our professor gave us a pop quiz. I was a conscientious student and had breezed through the questions, until I read the last one: "What is the first name of the woman who cleans the school?"

Surely this was some kind of joke. I had seen the cleaning woman several times. She was tall, dark-haired and in her 50s, but how would I know her name? I handed in my paper, leaving the last question blank.

Just before class ended, one student asked if the last question would count toward our quiz grade.

"Absolutely," said the professor. "In your careers, you will meet many people. All are significant. They deserve your attention and care, even if all you do is smile and say 'hello'."

I've never forgotten that lesson. I also learned her name was Dorothy.
