From: Praying with the Earth: A Prayerbook for Peace by John Philip Newell

Opening

Blessed are the forgiving, for they are free (Matthew 5.7)

Prayer of Awareness

Not because we have made peace this day.

Not because we have treated the other as our self.

Not because we have walked the earth with reverence today, but because there is mercy, because there is grace because your Spirit has not been taken from us we come

still thirsting for peace

still longing for love

still hungering for wholeness

Be still and aware of God's presence within and all around

Scripture and Meditation

As far as the east is from the west, so far does God remove our sin from us (Psalm 103.12)

Do not judge and you will not be judged (Matthew 7.1)

Do not walk proudly on the earth. You cannot rival the mountains in stature

(Quran – The Night Journey 17.37)

Prayers of Thanksgiving and Intercession

The ageless mountains are full of your glory the vast seas swell with your might the shining skies expand beyond our imagining so we pause to praise

we wait in wonder we listen to learn of the mountain glory within us of the sea force in our veins of love's shining infinity.

Grant us the grace, O God, to serve this inner universe of soul among us.

Pray for peace

Poem – "Clotilde"

BY GUILLAUME APOLLINAIRE
TRANSLATED BY DONALD REVELL

Anemone and columbine
Where gloom has lain
Opened in gardens
Between love and disdain

Made somber by the sun
Our shadows meet
Until the sun
Is squandered by night

Gods of living water
Let down their hair
And now you must follow
A craving for shadows

Closing Prayer

In the coming hours of darkness may there be light in our dreams.
In the stillness of sleep may there be strength for our souls.
In the wakeful watches of the night may there be peace in our minds.
light for a new vision strength to make sacrifice peace for our world.
On the pathways of earth's journey this night let there be peace.
