Join us as we honour the Jewish victims who died in the shooting in Pittsburgh this weekend at a gathering that will explore how understanding genocides can help us deal with hate and intolerance today.

We will gather to share the music and stories from many communities and honour ALL victims of genocide and persecution.

Hosted by the Sikh community on the anniversary weekend of the Sikh Genocide, the gathering will also include recognizing and learning from the Indigenous genocide as well as the genocides of many communities.

This is an experiential event so come prepared to sing, reflect and interact with participants. Admission is FREE, and all are welcome. Let's all work together to make "never again" a reality.

Would you like to better understand transgender experiences through the lens of Christian faith? "Belonging in the Body: Transgender Journeys of Faith" was produced and released by Generous Space Ministries in early 2018. The film shares the stories of 11 trans Christians - their experiences of church, scripture and faith. Following the 50 minute film in the sanctuary (7-8 pm), there will be a chance to ask questions to a panel of trans Christians. A reception with refreshments will follow in the Centre for Peace at about 8:40 pm to meet staff from Generous Space Ministries. This is a FREE event open to all with an optional opportunity to donate toward the work of Generous Space. Watch the trailer here https://youtu.be/h17l8ol50_8
