Auld Lang Syne

This song, often attributed to Scotland's favorite poet, Robert Burns, is often sung at New Year's celebrations. "Auld lang syne" literally means "old long ago". A better translation is perhaps "times gone by."

Should auld acquaintance be forgot
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot
And days of Auld Lang Syne?

For Auld Lang Syne, my dear,
For Auld Lang Syne;
We'll take a cup of kindness yet
For Auld Lang Syne.

Robert Burns (1759-1796)

And here's a hand, my trusty friend,
And gives a hand o' thine;
We'll take a cup of kindness yet
For Auld Land Syne.

For Auld Lang Syne, my dear,
For Auld Lang Syne;
We'll take a cup of kindness yet
For Auld Lang Syne

Call to Worship Scripture Ephesians 3:16-17

¹⁶ that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might through His Spirit in the inner man, ¹⁷ that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love.

Praise Factory A.M.

Beulah offers a unified service that serves the whole family during the 10:45 Morning Worship service. Children, ages 3 years through 5th grade, will be dismissed during the "handshake meet and greet" to go to Praise Factory A.M., our term for a Sunday School class on their learning and age level. Praise Factory P.M. begins at 5:00 and continues teaching on the child's level.

Stories of Encouragement for the New Year

Soar Like An Eagle

Did you know that an eagle can foresee when a storm is approaching long before it breaks?

Instead of hiding, the eagle will fly to some high point and wait for the winds to come. When the storm hits, it sets its wings so that the wind can pick it up and lift it above the storm. While the storm rages below, the eagle soars above it.

The eagle does not escape or hide from the storm instead it uses the storm to lift it higher. It rises on the stormy winds which others dread.

When the storm of life or challenges hit us, we can rise above them and soar like the eagle which ride the winds of the storm. Don't be afraid of the storms or the challenges in your life. Use them to lift you higher in your life.

Shake off Your Problems

A man's favorite donkey falls into a deep precipice. He can't pull it out no matter how hard he tries. He therefore decides to bury it alive.

Soil is poured onto the donkey from above. The donkey feels the load, shakes it off, and steps on it. More soil is poured.

It shakes it off and steps up. The more the load was poured, the higher it rose. By noon, the donkey was grazing in green pastures.

After much shaking off (of problems) And stepping up (learning from them), One will graze in GREEN PASTURES.

What Are You Waiting For?

By Kay Heitsch*

*You can never do a kindness too soon,
for you never know how soon it will be too late.*

~ Ralph Waldo Emerson ~

How many times have we said, "Oh I'll do that tomorrow." Sometimes tomorrow never comes and we find ourselves saying, "Boy, I wish I hadn't put that off."

Our family had been friends with Betty for many years. Over the years we shared phone calls and birthday cards. Betty sent our youngest son Brandon a birthday card with $5.00 in it every year until he graduated.

This past November I called Betty to see how she was and what she had done on her birthday. I was quite surprised when Betty didn't answer the phone; instead her daughter Carol did. Carol told me that her mom had gone downhill fast and she was now in Hospice care. Carol handed the phone to Betty. I talked briefly to her and let her know we loved her.

As soon as I got off the phone I sent a text to Brandon to let him know Betty wasn't doing well. Little did I know that Brandon stopped what he was doing and immediately sent flowers to Betty.

You can imagine how proud I was of Brandon when Carol called the next day letting me know how much Betty loved the flowers Brandon had sent. A few days later Betty died.

You can never do a kindness too soon, for you never know how soon it will be too late.

BEULAH FAMILY HAPPY NEWS!

- ♥ Mr. Lenville Mays will be 98 on New Year's Day! Make sure you wish him a very happy birthday! He is very special to all of us here at Beulah!
- ♥ Chris and Kristin Lowe welcomed a new baby boy on December 18th. Graham Hayden Lowe weighed 7lb, 14oz.—21.5 inches long, and is receiving lots of hugs from big sister Gracie. The Lowe Family would like to say....
Thank you all so much for all the prayers, good wishes, flowers and love sent our way. We are truly blessed with an amazing church family and are excited to introduce you all to Graham. We love you all, Chris, Kristin and Gracie
- ♥ Last Sunday, our church family celebrated the baptism of several. Cheri Ulrich, Emma Barker, Elaina Barker and Joshua Ross followed the Lord's example in baptism by immersion. We are happy for the decision of these followers of Christ.
- ♥ Thank you to all those who participated in the Lawrence County Jail Outreach. 100 bags were filled with gifts of encouragement. A special thanks to Carolyn Paetow and Lynn Clagg for delivering the gifts on Christmas Eve to the jail in Ironton.

We will open the book. Its pages are blank. We are going to put words on them ourselves. The book is called Opportunity and its first chapter is New Year's Day.
