An inviting faith community building up the body of Christ.

June 9th & 10th, 2018
Tenth Sunday
in Ordinary Time
Gospel: Mark 3.20-35

Lover of the human family, teach us to see every one of your children as your beloved, and ours.

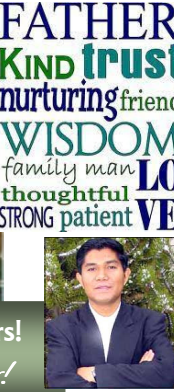

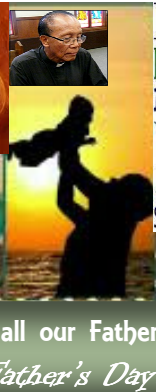

Whoever does
God's will is my
brother and sister
and
Mother. Mark 3:35

Expand our hearts to love all your people as our own. Break down the walls we put up, and erase the lines we draw between "them" and "us". May our lives be lived in accordance with your will, that we might be blessed to be a part of your family, on earth and in heaven. Amen.

June 16th & 17th, 2018
Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time
Gospel: Mark 4.26-34

God of seeds, teach us to anticipate your Kingdom being birthed in our lives. Give us hearts that long to receive the seeds you plant, and lives that tend your growth with great care. May we cultivate the gifts of your Spirit, that our lives will offer much fruit in accordance with your will. Amen.

God Bless all our Fathers!

Archbishop Smith's Pastoral Letter entitled Living in the Word of God invites us all to renew our focus on Scripture as we answer the call of the Holy Father Pope Francis. The complete letter can be found at caedm.ca/letter & www.sacredheartchurch.ca. A portion from the letter follows:

'HEAR the Word of God and DO It'

The commandment to love our neighbour moves us to evangelize the social and political order, bearing always in mind the dignity of the human person and concern for the common good in accord with Catholic social teaching. Particular outreach must be directed to the impoverished and marginalized. Addressing the plight of the poor, the Holy Father says: "We are called to find Christ in them, to lend our voice to their causes, but also to be their friends, to listen to them, to speak for them and to embrace the mysterious wisdom which God wishes to share with us through them." (Evangelii Gaudium, 198).

Answer Archbishop Smith's call to spend more time in the word. Check these out And Spread the Word!

Reflections for the Sunday Readings from Canadian Catholic Conference of Bishops

JUNE 10, 2018 – 10TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, Year B: Faithfulness matters more than blood in the life of God's family. The last lines of the Gospel are pretty powerful reminders to us: "Who are my mother and my brothers?... Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother." God is a God of constant invitation, One who offers purpose and mercy to all. And we are pretty fickle – even on our good days – in giving preference to those in our "own camp". It's beautiful that we work hard to love our own families and friends, but not if it is to the exclusion of others. God is asking us to expand our notion of family, to all those who seek goodness and love. Refugees, those struggling with poverty or addiction, people of different traditions and cultures – these too are God's family members, and He is asking us to love them as such.

JUNE 17, 2018 – 11TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, Year B: We are the soil in which God plants the seeds of His kingdom. Our lives are to bear fruit. In two powerful stories about seeds, Jesus tries to help us understand the magnitude and mystery of God's Kingdom. In both cases, God brings forth life from something small, that has to die first in order to bear fruit which cannot be imagined by looking at the seed. Each of us is a field in which God is planting the seeds of His Kingdom – and He plans for us to bear fruit. We believe in the fruitfulness of God and our participation in it. This is why the Church insists that pregnancy and children are always gifts, even when bearing new life comes with tremendous challenges. But we do not limit this fruitfulness to biological reproduction, even while we reverence that reality. Those called to biological parenthood (now or in the future), as well as those not called to biological parenthood (now or in the future) are asked to bear the fruit of the Kingdom: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness, and self-control (Galatians 5:22-23). Is your life bearing this fruit? If not, what help and healing is God asking you to pursue?

Ten Reasons to Embrace "Holy Leisure"!

The May 22nd edition of the Quid Novum profiles the article 10 Reasons to Embrace Holy Leisure by Sr Theresa Noble. Noble's article includes quotes by St. John Paul II who "was probably the most outspoken pope...on the importance of leisure". Each of the 10 reasons will be shared in our bulletin for the coming weeks.

2. Leisure Encourages Creativity and Insight: Leisure implies an attitude of total receptivity toward, and willing immersion in, reality; an openness of the soul, through which alone may come about those great and blessed insights that no amount of "mental labor" can ever achieve. (Josef Pieper)

3. A Culture of Work Must Be Balanced with a Culture of Leisure: Together with a culture of work, there must be a culture of leisure as gratification. To put it another way: people who work must take the time to relax, to be with their families, to enjoy themselves, read, listen to music, play a sport. But this is being destroyed, in large part, by the elimination of the Sabbath rest day. More and more people work on Sundays as a consequence of the competitiveness imposed by a consumer society. (Pope Francis)

Seeking Aspiring Student Journalists

Are you a university or senior high school student? Are you curious about the world around you? Do you like to write? Would you like to interview interesting people and learn from professional journalists? Do you want to enrich your faith? The Catholic Register wants you. They are assembling their new Youth Speak News team of writers from across Canada for the 2018-19 season. Check out the video to see what team members do, or find application details at catholicregister.org.
