Greetings once again from the Naknakim Family!

We are thankful for your prayer and support in days where prayer has become more essential than ever. August 17, 2018 we briefly stepped away from the area of Campbell River and travelled south to Nanoose Bay Camp located on Vancouver Island in British Columbia. It is a strategic, central gathering place where 110 Native believers and friends converge to fellowship together to honor our Savior Jesus Christ.

This year we once again assumed the roles of Youth Director and Worship leading. We were encouraged to gather with Native friends and family from around Canada and the United States.

Many of the young Native people had attended the camp themselves years ago as youth. Now they returned with their families as strong family units. Many of the young people made a marriage commitment by trusting our Lord for as a source of strength. We were so encouraged by the testimonies and baptisms that were witnessed during our time at Nanoose Camp.

We were blessed with the teamwork of youth leaders from around Vancouver Island. We worked together so the teens and the children could receive teaching and mentorship. We prayed for key moments at camp that touched with the will of our Lord. It was a blessing to participate together in worship and volunteering in tasks that kept the camp running. We had fun as we did various recreational activities such as canoeing, kayaking, archery, glow in the dark capture the flag and various other games.

The Holy Spirit was present in the fellowship and the services that were held at the camp. We want to continue in prayer for those that made new commitments and for those who are rising up as leaders in their homes and communities.

I keep this promise found in Revelation 7:9 in mind:

"After this I looked, and behold, a great multitude that no one could number, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice, "Salvation belongs to our God who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels were standing around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God."

We give all glory to our Lord Jesus Christ,

Thank you!
