

The Sixteenth Sunday After Pentecost

SEPTEMBER 20, 2020 | 5:30PM

CATHEDRAL VISION | We envision a Cathedral which is radically inclusive, restlessly inquisitive, intentional, and inspired. This is a place that is called to lead and to serve, in communion and in community, with healing, reconciliation, and love, living out Christian mission. Together, we look to the power of Christ for the transformation of each person, this city, and the world. We recognize our history and traditions, while seeking renewal and growth. Curious and adaptable, this chorus has room for all voices. Whoever you are, wherever you come from, whomever you love, and regardless of what you may bring or are searching for, you are welcome here.

Presider

Creator God,

All

we give you thanks for all that you are and all that you bring to us for our visit within your creation.

In your presence and in the presence of this community gathered,

we acknowledge that we stand on the unceded territory of the Coast Salish peoples.

Help us to be mindful of our actions here,

for you are God, now and forever. Amen.

Presider

God of deep compassion, you welcome the weak and free us from the bondage of sin.
Break the cycle of judgement and violence through Jesus our forgiveness, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

All Amen.

Proclaiming the Word

Reading Exodus 16:2-15

Reader Word of God, Word of Life.
All Thanks be to God.

Psalm 105 1-6 Give thanks to the Lord and call upon the divine name; *
 make known the deeds of the Lord among the peoples.
Sing to the Lord, sing praises, *
 and speak of all the marvellous works of the Lord.
Glory in the holy name; *
 let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice.
Search for the strength of the Lord; *
 continually seek the face of God.
Remember the marvels the Lord has done, *
 the wonders and the judgements of the mouth of the Lord,
O offspring of Abraham the servant of God, *
 O children of Jacob the chosen of the Lord.

Psalm 105:37-45 You led out your people with silver and gold; *
 in all their tribes there was not one that stumbled.
Egypt was glad of their going, *
 because they were afraid of them.
You spread out a cloud for a covering * and a fire to give light in the night season.
They asked, and quails appeared, *
 and you satisfied them with bread from heaven.
You opened the rock, and water flowed, *
 so the river ran in the dry places.
For you, O God, remembered your holy word *
 and Abraham your servant.
So you led forth your people with gladness, *
 your chosen with shouts of joy.
You gave your people the lands of the nations, *
 and they took the fruit of others' toil, that they might keep your statutes * and observe your laws. Hallelujah!

All Glory to God, Source of all being, eternal Word and Holy Spirit:
as it was in the beginning, is now and will be for ever. Amen.

How Small Our Span of Live

Text: Herman G. Stuempfle Jr., (1923–);
Music: KINGSFOLD, English trad.

1 How small our span of life, O God, our years from birth till death:
2 And yet our speck of life is spanned by your in - fin - i - ty;
3 O Christ, you left e - ter - ni - ty to plunge in time's swift stream, 4 We thank you, God, for kind-ling faith that lights our tran - sient years, a sin - gle beat with - in the heart, the catch-ing of a breath, our tick of time on earth is caught in your e - ter - ni - ty.

to share the short-ness of our span, our mor - tal lives re - deem.
il - lu - min - ing our pil-grim-age through mists of doubt and fears;

a drop with-in the o - cean's deep, a grain up - on the shore,
While suns and stars spin end - less - ly through depths of cos - mic space,
You filled your cross-closed years with love; you loved us to the end for hope that sees a life be - yond the swift - ly pass-ing days;

a flash of light be - fore we sleep to see the sun no more.
while ae - ons roll and ag - es pass, you hold us in your grace.
and touch us with your ris - en life that ours may time trans - cend.
for love, both hu - man and di - vine, that lifts our hearts to praise.

Silence & stillness

Confession & Absolution

Presider Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence & stillness

Presider Most merciful God

All we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves.
We have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart:
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us.
Forgive us, renew us and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

Presider God who is rich in mercy, loved us even when we were dead in sin, and made us alive together with Christ. By grace you have been saved.
In the name of Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven.
Almighty God strengthen you with power through the Holy Spirit, that Christ may live in your hearts through faith.

All Amen.

Presider May the peace of Christ be always with you.

All And also with you.

In this time of COVID-19 we invite you to simply bow to one another and offer a blessing of peace to your neighbours.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them up to God.

All It is right to give our thanks and praise.

almighty and merciful God, through our Saviour Jesus Christ;
who on this day overcame death and the grave,
and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.
And so, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven, we praise your name and join their unending hymn.

Presider

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal:
 you we praise and glorify, you we worship and adore.
 You formed the earth from chaos; you encircled the globe with air;
 you created fire for warmth and light; you nourish the lands with water.
 You moulded us in your image, and with mercy higher than the mountains, with grace deeper than the seas, you blessed the Israelites and cherished them as your own.
 That also we, estranged and dying, might be adopted to live in your Spirit, you called to us through the life and death of Jesus.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
 Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Together as the body of Christ, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

All
Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Presider
With this bread and cup we remember your Son, the first-born of your new creation. We remember his life lived for others, and his death and resurrection, which renews the face of the earth.
We await his coming, when, with the world made perfect through your wisdom, all our sins and sorrows will be no more.

All
Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Presider
Holy God, holy and merciful, holy and compassionate, send upon us and this meal your Holy Spirit, whose breath revives us for life, whose fire rouses us to love.
Enfold in your arms all who share this holy food.
Nurture in us the fruits of the Spirit, so that we may be a living tree, sharing your bounty with all the world.

All
Amen. Come, Holy Spirit.

Presider
Holy and benevolent God, receive our praise and petitions, as Jesus received the cry of the needy, and fill us with your blessing, until, needy no longer and bound to you in love,
we feast forever in the triumph of the Lamb:
through whom all glory and honour is yours,
O God, O Living One, with the Holy Spirit, in your holy church, now and for ever.

All
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider
As Jesus taught us, and in the language of your heart, we now pray,

All
Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Presider
Come to the banquet, for now all is ready.
The gifts of God, for you, the people of God.

All
Thanks be to God.

Share the Gifts (new information, please read)

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in Communion.

If you wish to receive Holy Communion, the celebrant will come down and stand in front of the altar. Please keep your mask on and come forward one at a time, maintaining physical distancing with others in the congregation. If you prefer to receive a gluten-free wafer, please mention this to the Celebrant. The Celebrant will place the wafer in your hand. Please keep the wafer in your hand until you have returned to your seat. At your seat you may unhook your mask, consume the wafer, then replace your mask. If you would prefer to receive a contactless blessing, please keep your mask on, and place your hand over your heart.

If you're joining in via the livestream, please place your hand over your heart and say, "Come, Lord Jesus, come."

Music During Communion

Sending Out of the Disciples

Prayer after Communion

Presider We give you thanks, almighty God, that you have refreshed us through the healing power of this gift of life.
In your mercy strengthen us through this gift in faith toward you and in fervent love toward one another;
for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord.
All Amen.

Presider Glory to God,
All whose power working in us can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation, in the church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Blessing the Community

All May the peace of Christ go with you, wherever she may send you; may she guide you through the wilderness, protect you through the storm;
may she bring you home rejoicing, at the wonders she has shown you;

A Message from the Very Rev. Christopher A. Pappas

SEPTEMBER 20, 2020

Dear Friends,

COVID-19 has made all our lives more challenging in many ways, and many of you are feeling distanced from your beloved Cathedral—shared worship, loving fellowship with each other, the sacrament of Holy Communion and that ineffable presence we feel when we gather in this spectacular space.

I want you to know in spite of the challenges that COVID-19 has presented, the Cathedral staff, clergy and lay leadership are working on ways to provide these usual comforts and supports in ways that are meaningful and suit the diversity of needs across our congregation, while continuing to keep us safe.

While I have already had a chance to meet and get to know some members of the Cathedral community, over the next several weeks and months I would especially like to reach out to those of you whom I have yet to meet. There are two new ways for this to happen and I hope you will attend these events, either in person or online. I hope you will attend some of the events happening in early fall, so I am able to begin get to know you and we can better stay connected.

St. Brigid's is the Sunday Evening congregation of Christ Church Cathedral, a place where questions are honoured, faith is nurtured, and discipleship pursued.

You are welcome to this historic Anglican Cathedral Church in the heart of Vancouver located on the traditional territory of the Musqueam, Squamish, and Tsleil-Waututh First Nations.

We gather to share in the Eucharist, to be transformed by our encounters with God and each other, and to be sent out into the world to serve. We aspire to live integrated lives, and to be agents of Christ's reconciling, shalom-seeking, and justice-oriented love in the culture and cultures of which we are part.

The Rev. Marnie Peterson (our priest) provides leadership that helps us to grow more deeply in our Christian life and practice.

For more information on our Sunday gatherings and other opportunities to connect at St. Brigid's, please visit stbrigid.ca.
