CATHEDRAL VISION | We envision a Cathedral which is radically inclusive, restlessly inquisitive, intentional, and inspired. This is a place that is called to lead and to serve, in communion and in community, with healing, reconciliation, and love, living out Christian mission. Together, we look to the power of Christ for the transformation of each person, this city, and the world. We recognize our history and traditions, while seeking renewal and growth. Curious and adaptable, this chorus has room for all voices. Whoever you are, wherever you come from, whomever you love, and regardless of what you may bring or are searching for, you are welcome here.

WELCOME! Thank you for joining the Cathedral's St. Brigid's community in-person and via livestream for worship during All Saints Day. You are welcome to this historic Anglican Cathedral Church on the traditional, ancestral, and unceded territory of the Musqueam, Squamish, and Tsleil-Waututh Nations located in the heart of Vancouver.

If you have any questions about the St. Brigid's ministry please visit our website at stbrigid.ca.

Presider

Creator God,

All

we give you thanks for all that you are and all that you bring to us for our visit within your creation.

In your presence and in the presence of this community gathered, we acknowledge that we stand on the unceded territory of the Coast Salish peoples.

Help us to be mindful of our actions here, for you are God, now and forever. Amen.

Collect

Presider

God of all people, from every tribe and language;
you called true witnesses who sang your praise, lived your grace and worked for peace.
May we share their faith and live by their example, so that we might be a blessing to the hunger of your world;
through Jesus Christ, whose body we are.

All

Amen.

Lighting of three candles on the altar

Presider

We light a light for those you want to remember
We light a light for hope
We light a light as prayer beyond words.

Light a candle for those you need, in whatever way, to let go.
For those you want to remember.
For those you love and see no longer.

Let us pray.

God of all life,
life here and now, life beyond death;
God of many names,
reaching out through beliefs and traditions and sometimes despite these things;
God reaching out to us, who holds us and hears us,
let your Spirit move amongst us,
let burdens be lifted,
let hearts be lightened.
May those who are suffering find peace and may those who mourn know they are blessed in you.

All

Amen.

Psalm 34

Balhoff, Daigle, Ducote

Taste and see the good- ness of the Lord, the good - ness of the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times, praise shall be always on my lips.
Let my soul glory in the Lord, the lowly will hear me and be glad.

Glorify the Lord with me, let us together praise God's name.
In my need, God has answered me; delivering me from all my fears. Antiphon

Look to God, the source of your joy, and your face will not blush with shame.
When the poor cry out, the Lord hears, rescuing them from distress.

Taste and see the goodness of the Lord; happy are they who take refuge in God.
Nothing shall they want. Antiphon

I will turn from sin to do God's will; seek peace and follow in its way.
For our God listens to the cry of the just, who abide in faith. Antiphon

Please stand for the Affirmation of Faith

The Nicene Creed

Presider Let us confess our faith, as we say,

All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father. With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Confession & Absolution

Presider Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence & stillness

Presider Most merciful God

All we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves.

We have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone.

We have not loved you with our whole heart:
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.

For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us.

Forgive us, renew us and lead us, so that we may delight in your will and walk in your ways, to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

Presider God who is rich in mercy, loved us even when we were dead in sin, and made us alive together with Christ. By grace you have been saved.

In the name of Jesus Christ, your sins are forgiven.

Almighty God strengthen you with power through the Holy Spirit, that Christ may live in your hearts through faith.

All Amen.

Silence & stillness

Presider May the peace of Christ be always with you.

All And also with you.

In this time of COVID-19 we invite you to simply bow to one another and offer a blessing of peace to your neighbours.

Offertory Hymn And Every One 'neath Their Vine (CP 595)

Music: Melody Israeli trad.;

Prayer over the Gifts

All

God of all creation, all you have made is good, and your love endures forever.
You bring forth bread from the earth and fruit from the vine.
Nourish us with these gifts, that we might be for the world signs of your gracious presence in Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Guide. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Presider

May God be with you.

All

And also with you.

Presider

Lift up your hearts.

All

We lift them up to God.

Presider

Let us give thanks to God our Creator.

All

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider

It is right in all times and in all places to thank and praise you Creator of all.
We praise you here where the Fraser River meets the Salish Sea, where city and farm, wilderness and industry are side by side.
We praise you at a time when the body of earth is broken again and again.
We give thanks for our place in the story of salvation.
Our ancestors journeyed with you in creation and migration.
They depended on the land, were displaced from the land and displaced others from their lands. They knew you in tents and cities, on mountains and by wells, in families and in dreams, and through wilderness prophets who spoke of cedars and listened to ravens.
Together with angels and ancestors, orca and salmon, bear and raven, salal and cedar we join our voices with all creation in this ancient honour song:

Presider

We give thanks to you for Jesus, whose first bed was a feed trough.
He was baptized in the Jordan, tested in the wilderness, he traveled in fishing boats and told parables of farmers and seeds, labour and wages, yeast and bread.

On the night before he died, Jesus took bread, food of the poor, the work of field and hearth, he gave thanks, broke it and gave it to his friends saying:
“Take and eat, this is my body, given for you, do this to remember me.”
Again after supper he took the cup of wine, fruit of the land, gave thanks and gave it to his friends saying: “This is my blood, which is shed for you.
When you do this, do it in memory of me.”

Remembering Jesus’ life, death and resurrection and awaiting his coming kingdom, we offer you this bread and this cup. Creator, send your Spirit on these gifts so that we know Jesus in them and are gathered together with everyone who shares this sacred meal of justice and community.

Fill us with the courage and love of Jesus, that we may strive for justice and peace, respect the dignity of every human being, and safeguard the integrity of creation.
Bring us with all your saints to your commonwealth of sparrow and lily, child and beggar which is both now and yet to come.

All honour and glory are yours, Creator, Christ and Spirit, now and forever.
All
Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider As Jesus taught us, and in the language of your heart, we now pray,

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Presider Come to the banquet, for now all is ready.

The gifts of God, for you, the people of God.

All Thanks be to God.

Share the Gifts (new information, please read)

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in Communion.

If you wish to receive Holy Communion, the celebrant will come down and stand in front of the altar. Please keep your mask on and come forward one at a time, maintaining physical distancing with others in the congregation. If you prefer to receive a gluten-free wafer, please mention this to the Celebrant. The Celebrant will place the wafer in your hand. Please keep the wafer in your hand until you have returned to your seat. At your seat you may unhook your mask, consume the wafer, then replace your mask. If you would prefer to receive a contactless blessing, please keep your mask on, and place your hand over your heart.

If you're joining in via the livestream, please place your hand over your heart and say, "Come, Lord Jesus, come."

St. Brigid's is the Sunday Evening congregation of Christ Church Cathedral, a place where questions are honoured, faith is nurtured, and discipleship pursued.

You are welcome to this historic Anglican Cathedral Church in the heart of Vancouver located on the traditional territory of the Musqueam, Squamish, and Tsleil-Waututh First Nations.

We gather to share in the Eucharist, to be transformed by our encounters with God and each other, and to be sent out into the world to serve. We aspire to live integrated lives, and to be agents of Christ's reconciling, shalom-seeking, and justice-oriented love in the culture and cultures of which we are part.

The Rev. Marnie Peterson (our priest) provides leadership that helps us to grow more deeply in our Christian life and practice.
