

The Feast of St. Michael & All Angels (transferred)

SEPTEMBER 27, 2020 | 5:30PM

CATHEDRAL VISION | We envision a Cathedral which is radically inclusive, restlessly inquisitive, intentional, and inspired. This is a place that is called to lead and to serve, in communion and in community, with healing, reconciliation, and love, living out Christian mission. Together, we look to the power of Christ for the transformation of each person, this city, and the world. We recognize our history and traditions, while seeking renewal and growth. Curious and adaptable, this chorus has room for all voices. Whoever you are, wherever you come from, whomever you love, and regardless of what you may bring or are searching for, you are welcome here.

WELCOME! Thank you for joining the Cathedral's St. Brigid's community in-person and via livestream for worship during The Feast of St. Michael & All Angels (transferred). You are welcome to this historic Anglican Cathedral Church on the traditional, ancestral, and unceded territory of the Musqueam, Squamish, and Tsleil-Waututh Nations located in the heart of Vancouver.

Presider Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Silence & stillness

Presider Most merciful God
All we confess that we are captive to sin and cannot free ourselves.
 We have sinned against you in thought, word and deed,
 by what we have done and by what we have left undone.
 We have not loved you with our whole heart:

All We lift them up to God.

Presider Let us give thanks to God our Creator.

All It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider It is indeed our right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, through our Saviour Jesus Christ;
who on this day overcame death and the grave,
and by his glorious resurrection opened to us the way of everlasting life.
And so, with the church on earth and the hosts of heaven,
we praise your name and join their unending hymn.

Presider

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal:
 you we praise and glorify, you we worship and adore.
 You formed the earth from chaos; you encircled the globe with air;
 you created fire for warmth and light; you nourish the lands with water.
 You moulded us in your image, and with mercy higher than the mountains, with grace deeper than the seas, you blessed the Israelites and cherished them as your own.
 That also we, estranged and dying, might be adopted to live in your Spirit, you called to us through the life and death of Jesus.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying:
 Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying:
 This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

All Together as the body of Christ, we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.
Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

Presider With this bread and cup we remember your Son, the first-born of your new creation. We remember his life lived for others, and his death and resurrection, which renews the face of the earth.
We await his coming, when, with the world made perfect through your wisdom, all our sins and sorrows will be no more.

All Amen. Come, Lord Jesus.

Presider Holy God, holy and merciful, holy and compassionate, send upon us and this meal your Holy Spirit, whose breath revives us for life, whose fire rouses us to love.
Enfold in your arms all who share this holy food.
Nurture in us the fruits of the Spirit,
so that we may be a living tree, sharing your bounty with all the world.

All Amen. Come, Holy Spirit.

Presider Holy and benevolent God, receive our praise and petitions, as Jesus received the cry of the needy, and fill us with your blessing, until, needy no longer and bound to you in love,
we feast forever in the triumph of the Lamb:
through whom all glory and honour is yours,
O God, O Living One, with the Holy Spirit,
in your holy church, now and for ever.

All Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider As Jesus taught us, and in the language of your heart, we now pray,

All Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name
your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Presider Come to the banquet, for now all is ready.
The gifts of God, for you, the people of God.

All Thanks be to God.

Share the Gifts (new information, please read)

If you wish to receive Holy Communion, the celebrant will come down and stand in front of the altar. Please keep your mask on and come forward one at a time, maintaining physical distancing with others in the congregation. If you prefer to receive a gluten-free wafer, please mention this to the Celebrant. The Celebrant will place the wafer in your hand. Please keep the wafer in your hand until you have returned to your seat. At your seat you may unhook your mask, consume the wafer, then replace your mask. If you would prefer to receive a contactless blessing, please keep your mask on, and place your hand over your heart.

If you're joining in via the livestream, please place your hand over your heart and say, "Come, Lord Jesus, come."

Music During Communion

Sending Out of the Disciples

Prayer after Communion

Presider We give you thanks, almighty God, that you have refreshed us through the healing power of this gift of life.
In your mercy strengthen us through this gift in faith toward you and in fervent love toward one another;
for the sake of Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Presider Glory to God,
All whose power working in us
can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine.
Glory to God from generation to generation,
in the church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

Blessing the Community

All May the peace of Christ go with you, wherever she may send you;
may she guide you through the wilderness, protect you through the storm;
may she bring you home rejoicing, at the wonders she has shown you;
may she bring you home rejoicing, once again into our doors.

Sending Song

Come, Thou Font of Every Blessing (CP 354)

Text: Robert Robinson (1735–1790), alt.;
Music: A Repository of Sacred Music: Part Second,
Harrisburg, 1813; NETTLETON

1 Come, thou Fount of ev-ery bless-ing, tune my heart to sing thy grace;
2 Here I make faith's af-firm-a-tion: thus far by thy help I've come,
3 O to grace how great a debt-or dai-ly I'm con-strained to be!

streams of mer-cy, nev-er ceas-ing, call for songs of loud-est praise.
and I hope, by thy com-pas-sion, safe-ly to ar-rive at home.
Let thy good-ness, like a fet-ter, bind my wan-dering heart to thee.

Teach me some me-lo-dious mea-sure, sung by flam-ing tongues a-bove;
Je-sus sought me when a stran-ger, wan-dering from the fold of God;
Prone to wan-der, Lord, I feel it, prone to leave the God I love;

O the vast, the bound-less trea-sure of my God's un-chang-ing love.
he, to res-cue me from dan-ger, in-ter-posed his pre-cious blood.
take my heart, O take and seal it, seal it for thy courts a-bove.

The Dismissal

Presider

Let us bless the Lord.

All

Thanks be to God.

At the conclusion of the service, we ask that everyone leave the building and have your visits outside.

Please exit through the west doors leading into the Memorial Garden.

Thank you for joining us today.

Notes from Anne Kessler

SEPTEMBER 27, 2020

This week my notes are my “goodbye” to the Cathedral community. Truth be told, writing this to you feels insufficient as a goodbye. I find myself in a space of lament. I am lamenting the fact that I will not get to say goodbye to many of you in person, let alone hug you. I am lamenting the fact that I have not seen most of you in months, and that I do not know when I will next be able to sing out at the top of my lungs into a building filled with people. I am lamenting the virus and all its impacts, especially the restrictions on our ability to gather in person. Because of the ongoing impact of COVID-19 on the Cathedral, the Cathedral made the extremely difficult decision to end my contract as the Children, Youth, and Families Coordinator. I lament, even as I look forward to beginning my schooling to become a teacher.

I simply cannot tell you how life-giving these last four years at the Cathedral has been. It has been a spiritual home. I have built deep relationships. I have been given the opportunity to learn from, and occasionally teach, our beautiful and intelligent children and youth, who I will miss above all. I have loved this community, and you have loved me back. I will miss you greatly.

Lament, of course, is not a bad thing. Rituals of lament are one of the great gifts of faith communities. Only through lamenting, through acknowledging change and death when it comes, can we be open to new life. Rituals of lament allow us to sit with change or death, to feel them, acknowledge what has happened. If we fail to acknowledge the change or the death, we will not be open to the new life when it arrives. Mary and the other women witnessed the resurrection because they were performing the rituals of lament: bringing spices to the tomb to prepare Jesus’ body for burial.

I’m sure that you too are lamenting changes and difficulties in your own lives. You may also be lamenting the challenges this time has presented to our church community, even as new shoots arise in your own lives, and in the life of children and youth ministry at the Cathedral. The Cathedral has already begun to take steps towards imagining what support for children, youth, and families will look during this time of COVID-19, through pastoral care, confirmation classes and monthly family worship.

I think if you as a community hold yourself open to lament, death and new life, even more profound change may appear.

This virus means that children's ministry as we have practiced it in Godly Play will not be possible until a vaccine is widely available. But we cannot allow our children to go without spiritual formation for however long that will be. Throughout my four years at the Cathedral I've spoken often about the fact that the best way for children to "catch" faith is to be fully part of the worshipping community. What if we took this time as an opportunity to re-imagine how we integrate children into the whole community's worship life? How can we make our worship experience more accessible? How can we get used to the extra noises and movements that come with children in worship? How can we support parents who bring their children to worship, and support them in their children's formation at those times when attending worship is simply too hard?

This won't be easy, but we must live into these questions if we hope to have children, youth and parents continue to be part of our community once we are able to throw our doors open wide again.

I also think we need to live into these questions for ourselves. Children bring to worship many things that I know many of us have been struggling to feel in our experiences of worship during this time: joy, wonder, awe, excitement, living fully in the moment and fully in our bodies. Before the pandemic, the times I have felt most profoundly moved by our worship has been at time when we have put our children at the center of our worship: when our junior youth acted out Jesus' presentation at the temple in February, when our children have gathered around the altar at the Eucharist and held up the bread and the wine, when young voices tell ancient stories as if for the first time. How would once again putting our young people at the centre of our worship help us to return to that feeling of worship that we are so desperately missing?

And so I leave you with this: do not be scared to feel the sadness, grief and sorrow. Feel it down to your bones. Perform rituals of lament; the bible offers many beautiful ones. Yell a psalm of lament at the top of your lungs to God. Then, listen to our young people, for there will new life appear. There will God's spirit move, and God's abundant love be known.

God be with you,
