THIS SUNDAY

This past year marked the 500th anniversary of the event that sparked the Protestant Reformation - a radical reforming of Christian practice and beliefs. At its heart, the Reformation was a call back to Biblical faith - a faith defined by the Biblical revelation. In so many ways, we, as a church, are children of this reformation. It's deep in our DNA as Lambrick.

This morning we hear from Scott Anderson as we revisit what it means for us to live in the beautiful truth of "the priesthood of all believers".

Next Sunday we welcome special guest speaker Jo Vitale from Ravi Zacharias International Ministries, who will be speaking on "Is God sexist?"

For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power...

PRAYER MATTERS

With Lambrick's support, Food For The Hungry has undertaken a clean water project in Sasiga, Ethiopia. In 2017, FH Ethiopia helped dig nine new wells and capped four local springs to deliver clean water to 3,119 people. Locals are trained on maintaining the wells and overall sanitation and hygiene - including how to construct safe and sanitary latrines. Pray for Food for the Hungry Staff as they work with "our" project in the mid Highlands. Pray for the women who bear the brunt of the responsibility to provide clean water for their households and that families enjoy increasing good health as a result of better sanitation and hygiene.
