

Sermon Summary, Oct 4th, 2019

Serving:
True Service

- John 13:1-17 contains one of the most astonishing scenes in all of history.
 - Foot-washing was a big deal in Jesus' day.
 - It was a detestable act performed by only the lowliest in society.
 - Jesus washed his disciple's feet although he was a respected teacher and God's own son.
- Jesus acted as an example of how we should act.
 - Jesus served out of love and not out of obligation.
 - To serve out of love is to truly serve like Jesus.
- Jesus does not only provide the example to follow: love. He also provides the means by which to follow it: love.
 - The cross is the ultimate example and catalyst of love.
 - It is this act of selfless love that allows us to love selflessly.
- So, how do we truly serve out of love? We tell ourselves this "If he did this for me..."
