Doing what we are called to do is an opportunity to experience internal and external benefit.

For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 5:20

“You have heard that it was said to those of old, ‘You shall not commit adultery.’ But I say to you that whoever looks at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.”

Matthew 5:27-28

What is Jesus getting at?

Keep your heart with all
diligence,
For out of it spring the issues of life.

Proverbs 4:23

For you, brethren, have been called to liberty; only do not use liberty as an opportunity for the flesh, but through love serve one another. For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Galatians 5:13-14

A wooden desk with a pencil and flowers. A dark blue pencil is positioned vertically on the left side of the page. In the top left corner, there are small white and purple flowers. The background is a dark wood surface.

YOU FOLLOW JESUS!

- 1) We should do right because it's the right thing to do.
- 2) We should do right in hope for the internal positive outcome.
- 3) The greater reward is the sanctifying process.
