

Sermon Notes—February 21, 2021

“Come and See for Yourself”

Scripture: John 4:1-30; 39-42

After listening to the sermon today, there are a few reflective questions to ponder.

1. Was the encounter between Jesus and the Samaritan woman a random act? Reflect on your own life, the encounter between you and Jesus, how did Jesus seek you out?
2. What parts of your life you do not want to let Jesus in? After learning that Jesus knows you from the inside out, what is your response?
3. How does your faith tradition passed down to you affect the way you worship God?
4. Do you hear directly from Jesus through the Holy Spirit? In other words, how is your relationship with Jesus?
5. Please share your answer with your small group or someone you trust.

May you drink from the living water Jesus offers and may it become a fresh bubbling spring within you.
