Prayer Matters

This week we pray for Celo and Kelly Gahaya (nee Johnson), who run Lighthouse Counselling and Training Centre in Kigali, Rwanda. The Lighthouse Centre seeks to restore emotional wellness in the lives of their clients through a range of counselling programs, as well as providing quality professional training to other counsellors. We pray that God would continue to bless this ministry.

Kelly and Celo are currently taking a break from their work with the Lighthouse Centre and have returned to Canada for a few months. We pray that God will meet them in their time here - that they would find rest, refreshment and guidance for the season ahead.
