JOY

Bubble Up & Overflow

John 15:11

“I have told you these things so that My joy and delight may be in you, and that your joy may be made full and complete and overflowing.”

Devotional

As we recognize where our Joy originates and we open wide the gates of praise it will dispel the darkness of unbelief. When God’s light rushes in, because of praise to Him, our Joy begins to bubble up like a fountain of pure refreshing water.

“Therefore with Joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation” (Isaiah 12:3). Draw from the deep wells and posture your heart to store the fullness of Joy; store it up until it is full and complete and overflowing.

The Lord is the great storehouse pouring out abundance, so that you are lacking nothing and overflowing in all of His promises. “May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing [through the experience of your faith] that by the power of the Holy Spirit you will abound in hope and overflow with confidence in His promises” (Romans 15:13).

Study

Take some time this week studying Joy. Be encouraged to do a word search on Joy throughout the Bible to find the nuggets the Lord has provided. A couple of scriptures to start your journey include: Isaiah 12, John 16:24, Isaiah 55:8-12, & Acts 13:52.

Reflection & Action

- Spend time meditating on Romans 15:13.
- What does it look like to have your joy made full and complete and overflowing?

INSPIRATION & NOTES

Come and Dance with Me

When the storm of life is raging,
The thought comes where can I hide?

As evening comes so nigh,
I slip into bed and begin to cry.

Then my Jesus softly calls to me:
Come and dance with me!

You and I will dance,
In the eye of the storm.

As we dance in the eye of the storm,
My love will carry you through.

You are more than a conqueror,
So come and dance with me.

Arm in arm,
We will dance in the eye of the storm.

By Edith Smith

“Rejoice in the Lord always [delight, take pleasure in Him];
again I will say, rejoice!”
Philippians 4:4
