

Life Group Questions
(Matthew 17:1-13)

1. Read Matthew 17:1-13. If you feel up to it, read the parallel passages in Mark 9:2-13 and Luke 9:28-36. What sticks out to you from this passage? What questions come to mind?
2. Why is it important to know that Jesus is greater than any other Biblical hero of the faith? How does that help us read the Bible?
3. Because of sin, human beings cannot be in God's presence. Read 2 Samuel 6:6-7 and Leviticus 10:1-2 to see the consequences of sinful people in the presence of a holy God.
4. Is it hard to understand the holiness of God? Do you think we downplay his holiness in our culture? In what ways?
5. The same is used for transfiguration and transformation. It means an outward change that comes from an inward one. Have you experienced that kind of change? How so?
6. In what ways are growing more like Jesus? In what areas does work still need to be done? Are there areas of your life that you need to "listen to Jesus"?
7. What is one area you need to obey Jesus in?

Life Group Questions
(Matthew 17:1-13)

1. Read Matthew 17:1-13. If you feel up to it, read the parallel passages in Mark 9:2-13 and Luke 9:28-36. What sticks out to you from this passage? What questions come to mind?
2. Why is it important to know that Jesus is greater than any other Biblical hero of the faith? How does that help us read the Bible?
3. Because of sin, human beings cannot be in God's presence. Read 2 Samuel 6:6-7 and Leviticus 10:1-2 to see the consequences of sinful people in the presence of a holy God.
4. Is it hard to understand the holiness of God? Do you think we downplay his holiness in our culture? In what ways?
5. The same is used for transfiguration and transformation. It means an outward change that comes from an inward one. Have you experienced that kind of change? How so?
6. In what ways are growing more like Jesus? In what areas does work still need to be done? Are there areas of your life that you need to "listen to Jesus"?
7. What is one area you need to obey Jesus in?