"Enter In..."

Part 8: "...To Sponsorship," Galatians 6: 1-5

Now that we've celebrated Resurrection Sunday, we continue on in the light of Jesus' death, burial and resurrection to acknowledge all that He did for us. His death on the cross opened the way for us to have a personal relationship with God, symbolized when the veil in the temple was torn in two, opening up a way to enter the Holy of Holies and the very presence of God.

TODAY'S TRUTH: Accepting God's invitation to "Enter In" to a relationship with Him personally means we are reconciled to Him.

As "priests" entering the Holy of Holies, we are to relate to God to align ourselves with Him and act / intercede on behalf of others.

CONCLUSION

When we think of entering in to the Holy of Holies, we think of being in awe, in holy reverence bowing to Almighty God who made us and is all powerful and righteous before us! Are we also thinking like priests, and the responsibilities we have before Him, to be right with Him and praying and sacrificing for others to be right as well?
