LESSONS FROM MOSES' MUM

TEXT: EXODUS 2:1-4

As a mother, your instinct is to ensure that your child is protected from any harm. This needs to be true in a spiritual sense. You have been given the task to protect your children from any kind of spiritual attack that is very really there.

1. A lesson on risk assessment

a. The façade of control

— Control is a mirage. We have control but only up to our limits. God though has ultimate control.

— “For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.” Isaiah 55:8-9

b. The failure of comprehension

— Every person can plan... but none of us know exactly how things will work out.

2. A lesson on remaining attentive

a. Be vigilant in prayer

i. It enlists heaven's help

ii. It entails heavenly hoping

3. A lesson on rewarding allowance

a. God's will is found through surrender

— “I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.” Romans 12:1-2

b. God's will is filled with surprising graces

c. God's will is far more rewarding than our plan

— Too often we think we best keep it in our hands, when we are truly better releasing it into God's hands.

Mothers, would you surrender your child to the Lord? Would you assess that His plan is much better than your limitations? Christian, in a world full of spiritual danger, would you trust in God's ability to bring you to fulfilment and destiny?
