Responsible for:

- Ensuring a safe, clean, and healthy environment for children to experience God on a weekly basis through the ministries of ATCO Kids.
- Fostering a partnership between the church and each individual family that encourages spiritual leadership both at church and at home.
- Developing and administrating the children's Ministry (ages birth through 5th grade) through proper planning, programming, building and resourcing of teams, vision casting, and coordinating of events.
- Providing oversight to the various leaders, committees, and teams relative to the advancement of ATCO Kids.
- Developing and maintaining spiritual growth activities including, but not limited to: Children's Church, Wednesday evening children's programming, Vacation Bible School, and summer ministries for children.
- Collaborating with the ATCO Groups Director(s) and children's Sunday School teachers to maintain and improve children's Sunday School ministries.
- Seeking and implementing new and relevant ways of bringing families, both inside and outside the church, closer together and closer to God.
- Being the lead administrator in the children's department, in subjection to the Pastoral Staff and in cooperation with program directors and volunteers.

- Overseeing the care, maintenance, cleanliness, security and safety of the Children's Department and equipment.
- Making sure facilities are always aesthetically pleasing to parents and children.
- Securing information from visitors with children and notifying the church office with the information.
- Serving as point of contact for new families with children.
- Assuming the lead in assimilation of new families with children in cooperation with the Pastoral Staff.
- Recruiting, training, and encouraging volunteers from the church for service in ATCO Kids.
- Maintaining a teamwork atmosphere by exhibiting the attitude of a team player.

Other Professional Responsibilities:

- Minister to, love, and spend time with your family.
- Do not forsake your own spiritual welfare.
- Operate in a fashion that is compassionate to all people and honorable to your family and God.
- Participate in staff meetings.
- Participate in bi-annual evaluations.
- Obtain weekly office hours deemed appropriate by your supervisor.
- Attend Sunday worship services and Wednesday evening activities.
- Tithe to the general fund of ATCO Baptist Church.
- Pray for ATCO and other staff members as we pray for you.
- Be faithful to God, His Word, and this position.
