The Parable of the Shrewd Manager: Luke 16:1-16 (NLT)

Jesus told his disciples: “There was a rich man whose manager was accused of wasting his possessions. ² So he called him in and asked him, ‘What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, because you cannot be manager any longer.’

³ “The manager said to himself, ‘What shall I do now? My master is taking away my job. I’m not strong enough to dig, and I’m ashamed to beg— ⁴ I know what I’ll do so that, when I lose my job here, people will welcome me into their houses.’

⁵ “So he called in each one of his master’s debtors. He asked the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’

⁶ “‘Nine hundred gallons of olive oil,’ he replied.

“The manager told him, ‘Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it four hundred and fifty.’

⁷ “Then he asked the second, ‘And how much do you owe?’

“‘A thousand bushels of wheat,’ he replied.

“He told him, ‘Take your bill and make it eight hundred.’

⁸ “The master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly. For the people of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own kind than are the people of the light. ⁹ I tell you, use worldly wealth to gain friends for yourselves, so that when it is gone, you will be welcomed into eternal dwellings.

¹⁰ “Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much. ¹¹ So if you have not been trustworthy in handling worldly wealth, who will trust you with true riches? ¹² And if you have not been trustworthy with someone else’s property, who will give you property of your own?

¹³ “No one can serve two masters. Either you will hate the one and love the other, or you will be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and money.”

¹⁴ The Pharisees, who loved money, heard all this and were sneering at Jesus. ¹⁵ He said to them, “You are the ones who justify yourselves in the eyes of others, but God knows your hearts. What people value highly is detestable in God’s sight.

¹⁶ “The Law and the Prophets were proclaimed until John. Since that time, the good news of the kingdom of God is being preached, and everyone is forcing their way into it. ¹⁷ It is easier for heaven and earth to disappear than for the least stroke of a pen to drop out of the Law.

The earth shined
with his glory

Luke 16:10

Whoever can be trusted with very little can also be trusted with much, and whoever is dishonest with very little will also be dishonest with much.

A special thanks to Chris Lowe for speaking this morning. Chris is a deacon here at Beulah. He works as a financial specialist at the Department of Veteran Affairs. Our church is blessed to take advantage of his expertise in the role as our church treasurer. Chris has been a member of Beulah since 2017.

Looking at the picture of this beautiful family, you will see his amazing wife Kristin, daughter Gracelyn and son Graham.

Something you may not know about Chris is that he oversees the care of his father, Ken Lowe. Ken has Parkinson's, and when his disease worsened, with God's help, Chris was able to secure a house for his dad straight across the street from his family. He and Kristin make sure his dad is well cared for and are able to check in on him at all times.

Thanks Chris for walking the walk!

All Things Bright & Beautiful Cecil Alexander (1848)

All things bright and beautiful, all creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful, the Lord God made them all.

Each little flower that opens, each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colors, He made their tiny wings.

The purple headed mountains, the river running by,
The sunset and the morning that brightens up the sky.

The cold wind in the winter, the pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden, He made them every one.

The tall trees in the greenwood, the meadows where we play,
The rushes by the water, to gather every day.

He gave us eyes to see them, and lips that we might tell,
How great is God Almighty, who has made all things well!

Dear heavenly Father, thank you for all that you've given me. I pray to ask for your guidance. Help me be faithful in the small things and the big things. Help me be just and make good decisions in small things and big things. I trust you and follow you. Guide me Lord and give me wisdom. Amen.

BEULAH FAMILY NEWS

Welcome New Members!

Beulah is happy to announce six new members, who have recently become part of the Beulah family. Let's be an encouragement to each of these couples.

♥ Paul & Bonnie Wireman

♥ Dan & Rita Shriver

♥ Dave & Brenda McComas

Congratulations to Elizabeth Barker! She wowed the audience with her flute solo in the Fairland High School spring band concert. Several of our Beulah teens participated in the band concert. We say "Great Job!" to all of them! Elaina Barker

Nichole Taylor Ty Fletcher Sam Dunfee

Special Thanks to Missy Gorby! For several years, Missy has purchased beautiful Mother's Day baskets to present to special moms on Mother's Day. Thank you Missy for doing this! And thanks Yardley Gorby and Ellison Gorby (Missy's nieces) for assisting!
