5-Feet that are quick to rush into evil

Proverbs 6:20-32, Psalm 119:9-16

1. What insight, principle or observation from this week's message did you find to be most helpful, eye opening or troubling? Please explain.

2. Think of a regret you have. If you could give a message to your younger self, what might it be? Do you think your younger self would have listened? Why or why not?

3. Read Proverbs 6:20-23. Often as young people we struggle to listen to the rules of older wiser people…like parents. Why is that? How does this concept tie into the previous question about hearing a message (rules) from our older self?

4. Read Proverbs 6:24-26. According to this passage, what might "listening" to the older and wiser advice of others keep you from? Is this true only of sexual temptation or sin, or other areas as well? Discuss.

5. Read Proverbs 6:27-32. According to this passage, why is it important to listen to the wise advice of others? Have you seen this true in your life?

6. Many of us have an aversion to rules, why do you think that is? How might rules be a display of love (as you think of the rules your older self would give your younger self).

7. Alvin mentioned that… "You value your life when you value your Heavenly Fathers rules." What do you think about this?

8. Read Psalm 119:9-16. Count how many ways David says rules, without saying rules. How might your heavenly Fathers rules keep you from having feet that rush into evil? What keeps you, or makes it difficult for you to trust him and obey his rules?

9. Pray for each other.
