

In light of new guidance, the Church Council has approved the following:

Inside the building those who are fully vaccinated may now gather without masks or distancing. Those persons who have not yet received the vaccine are encouraged to continue practicing social distancing and wearing masks.

Hand sanitizers will continue to be available in the pews and in other areas of the building.