RESPONSIBILITIES OF AADC BOARD MEMBERS

1. Pray for AADC – its board members, its officers, and members, and for the ecumenical and international diaconal networks of which AADC is a member and our relationships with deacons and diaconal ministers in other denominations.
2. Make it a priority to attend AADC's Board meetings which are usually held monthly online via Zoom. (See bylaw 11.3). Participate in Board member e-mail discussions as needed within the timeframe set by the originator/chairperson of the discussion/committee.
3. Set policies and formulate plans in accordance with the purposes of AADC.
4. Consult with other Board members with respect to the overall operations of committees.
5. Ensure that your membership in AADC remains in good standing throughout your tenure (See bylaws 11.1 and 4.1).
6. Approve the annual budget for the AADC; and support AADC when it engages in additional fundraising efforts as you are able.
7. Promote AADC events and the diaconate.
