VIII. OTHER INFORMATION HELPFUL TO MEMBERS OF THE ELECTORAL SYNOD

What People Say About Travis Enright:

Servant Leadership: Presence, vision, humour. Works in the kitchen, in the hall, with community. Inspires others in the circle, encourages the voice, allows freedom for people to grow.

Superior Interpersonal Skills: Build rapport, listen actively, extend hospitality, accompany the suffering, engage in relationships, solve problems, resolve conflict, promote inclusion. Build partnerships, e.g. with Creating Hope Society, John Humphrey Centre for Peace and Human Rights.

Ecumenical Reach: Through PrayerWorks, Standing Stones Ministry, and Bleeding Heart Art Space, a vast circle of contacts and good relationships. Builds bridges to parishes both within the Anglican Diocese of Edmonton and the ecumenical community, and to the Indigenous communities in greater Edmonton. Has contacts in social agencies, academic institutions, and government, and across generations and a diversity of peoples.

The Prayerworks Community Meals Program is more than a meals program:

People live this as church.

Builds relationships between volunteers, between community members, between volunteers and community members.

Cares for community members.

Encourages laity to express their gifts.
