Small Group Discussion Guide The week of June 6

Ice Breaker 1: What seemingly insignificant event in your life has had echos from then until now?

Ice Breaker 2: Is there an activity or mannerism or behavior you've noticed that someone's rubbed off on you? What is it?

1. If you were to sum up what Sunday's message meant to you, what would you say?

2. Read Hebrews 10:24-25. The example of the Church at Thessalonica was impeccable. They were an encouragement to all other churches in the region. On Sunday, Pastor Adam said that believers either encourage or discourage one another. How does the church play a part in encouraging other believers?

3. In the past when you've had a difficult week, how has church been an encouragement to you?

4. What is one tangible way we can encourage others in their Christianity?

4. In your own words, explain what was going on in 1 Thessalonians 1:8. Why is this verse such a powerful statement?

5. Who has been an example of Gospel reverberation in your life?

6. (Food for thought): Where do you think we would be if the Gospel never went to Europe. Do you think America would exist?

7. Read 1 Thessalonians 1:10, Philippians 3:12-14 and Hebrews 12:1-2. The believers at Thessalonica were focused on Christ and His return. What can you do this week to better focus on Christ?

8. Read 1 Thessalonians 1:8-9. The Thessalonian believers turned from idols to serve Christ. Of course our culture doesn't worship idols and statues in the same way they did in ancient times, but are there some idols that culture has erected and tells us to worship?

9. In 1 Thessalonians 1:10, Paul stated that the Thessalonians were waiting and looking forward to the return of Christ. Do you think this important for us to do as well? Please explain.

10. What difference might anticipating Christ's return make in our life?
