About Ordination of Bishops, Priests & Deacons _____

“The Holy Scriptures and ancient Christian writers make it clear that from the apostles’ time there have been different ministries within the Church. Since the time of the New Testament, three distinct orders of ordained ministers have been characteristic of Christ’s holy catholic church. First, there is the order of bishops who carry on the apostolic work of leading, supervising, and uniting the Church. Secondly, associated with them are presbyters, or ordained elders, in subsequent times generally known as priests. Together with the bishops, they take part in the governance of the Church, in the carrying out of its missionary and pastoral work, and in the preaching of the word of God and the administration of the holy sacraments. Thirdly, there are deacons who, in addition to assisting bishops and priests in all this work, have a special responsibility to minister in Christ’s name to the poor, the sick, the suffering and the helpless.” (Book of Alternative Services, p. 631)

Baptism is the foundation of all ministries. At this ordination you will witness many signs and symbols and hear many words about the ministries of deacons and priests. The purpose of all ordained ministry is God’s mission to the world, which is exercised by the whole people of God so that all might know of the grace and love of God we have received in Jesus Christ our Lord. May this liturgy strengthen us in God’s call and be an instrument to build up the church and empower our ministries.

Some notes:

- We respectfully request that there be NO flash photographs taken during the service. Photos of the ordinands can be taken at the conclusion of the service.
- Please silence your cell phones.
- Please do not leave valuables unattended.
- The Bishop and the newly ordained deacons and priests will remain in the Cathedral after the service for photographs.

It is a privilege to welcome each of you to the Cathedral Church for today’s liturgy. Thank you to the coordinated efforts of diocesan and Cathedral staff and to Christ Church Cathedral, the Cathedral of the Diocese of New Westminster for their hospitality in hosting.

The Nicene Creed

Bishop Let us confess our faith, as we say,
All We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary, and was made man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the scriptures;
he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father.
 With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified.
 He has spoken through the prophets.
 We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Consecration of a Deacon

The Bishop stands with the ordinands before him & begins this Prayer of Consecration:

We praise and glorify you, most merciful God, because in your great love of our human race
you sent your only Son Jesus Christ to take the form of a servant;
he came to serve and not to be served;
and to teach us that one who would be great among us must be the servant of all;
he humbled himself for our sake,
and in obedience accepted death, even death on a cross;
therefore you highly exalted him and gave him the name which is above every name.

And now we give you thanks that you have called these your servants
to share this ministry entrusted to your Church.

Here the Bishop lays his hands on the head of each ordinand:

Send down your Holy Spirit upon your servant José Luis / Brynn / Monte whom we now consecrate in your name to the office and work of a deacon in the Church.

The Bishop continues:

Almighty God, give to these your servants grace and power to fulfill their ministry.
Make them faithful to serve, ready to teach,
and constant to advance your gospel;
and grant that always having full assurance of faith,
abounding in hope, and being rooted and grounded in love,
they may continue strong and steadfast in your Son Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with you and your Holy Spirit,
belong glory and honour, worship and praise, now and for ever.

All

Amen.

*The Anointing
Bishop*

José Luis / Brynn / Monte, I anoint your hands with Sacred Chrism.
May the grace of Christ fill you,
may the power of Christ sustain you,
may the love of Christ lead you that you may fulfill and maintain the vows you have made this day.
In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

The new deacons are now vested according to the order of deacons.

The Bishop hands a Bible to the newly ordained deacons, saying:

Receive this Bible as a sign of your authority to proclaim God's word and to assist in the ministration of God's holy sacraments.

Consecration of a Priest

The priests come forward to stand with the Bishop.

The Bishop stands with the ordinand before him & begins this Prayer of Consecration.

We praise and glorify you, almighty God,
because you have formed throughout the world
a holy people for your own possession,
a royal priesthood, a universal Church.

We praise and glorify you because you have given us your only Son Jesus Christ to be the Apostle and High Priest of our faith, and the Shepherd of our souls.

We praise and glorify you that by his death he has overcome death;
and that, having ascended into heaven, he has given his gifts abundantly to your people, making some, apostles; some, prophets; some, evangelists; some, pastors and teachers;
to equip them for the work of ministry and to build up his Body.

And now we give you thanks that you have called this your servant
to share this ministry entrusted to your Church.

Here the Bishop lays his hands on the head of the ordinand & the priests extend theirs:

Send down your Holy Spirit upon your servant Amanda whom we consecrate in your name to the office and work of a priest in the Church.

The Bishop continues:

Almighty God, give to this your servant grace and power to fulfil her ministry among the people committed to her charge;
to watch over them and care for them;
to absolve and bless them in your name;
and to proclaim the gospel of your salvation.
Set her among your people to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable in your sight,
and as you have called her to your service, make her by the gift of your Holy Spirit worthy of her calling.
Give her wisdom and discipline to work faithfully with all her fellow servants in Christ, that the world may come to know your glory and your love.

Accept our prayers, most merciful God, through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with you and your Holy Spirit,
belong glory and honour, worship and praise, now and for ever.

All

Amen.

*The Anointing
Bishop*

Amanda, I anoint your hands with Sacred Chrism.
May God who anointed the Christ with the Holy Spirit at his baptism, anoint and empower you to reconcile and bless his people.
In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

All

Amen.

The new priest is now vested according to the order of priests.

The Bishop hands a prayer book & a chalice & paten to the new priest, saying:

Amanda, receive this prayer book and this chalice and paten as signs of the authority given you to preach the word of God and to administer God's holy sacraments.

Do not forget the trust committed to you as a priest of the Church of God.

The Bishop presents the newly ordained to the people & invites their welcome.

Offertory Hymn

The Church of Christ in Every Age (CP 584)

Text: Fred Pratt Green (1903–); Music: William Knapp (1698–1768); WAREHAM

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1. The church of Christ in every age, beset by change but Spirit led,
must claim and test its heritage and keep on rising from the dead. | 4. For he alone, whose blood was shed, can cure the fever in our blood,
and teach us how to share our bread
and feed the starving multitude. |
| 2. Across the world, across the street, the victims of injustice cry
for shelter and for bread to eat, and never live until they die. | 5. We have no mission but to serve in full obedience to our Lord:
to care for all, without reserve,
and spread Christ's liberating word. |
| 3. Now let the servant church arise, a caring church that longs to be a partner in Christ's sacrifice,
and clothed in his humanity. | |

Prayer over the Gifts

Bishop

Faithful God,
accept all we offer you this day.
Kindle in us the flame of love
by which your apostle Barnabas bore witness to the gospel.
This we ask in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

All

Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Bishop

The Lord be with you

All

and also with you.

Bishop

Lift up your hearts.

All

We lift them to the Lord.

Bishop

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Bishop

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of heaven and earth;
we give you thanks and praise through Jesus Christ our Lord, who after his resurrection sent forth apostles to preach the gospel and to teach all nations, and promised to be with them always, even to the end of the ages.

Therefore with angels and archangels and all your holy people, we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

Sanctus

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord (CP 732)

Music: Community Mass, Richard Proulx (1937–)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav'n and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high-est.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est, ho - san - na in the high - est.

Bishop

We give thanks to you, Lord our God, for the goodness and love you have made known to us in creation;
in calling Israel to be your people; in your word spoken through the prophets;
and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus your Son.
For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
to be the Saviour and Redeemer of the world.
In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you.
In him, you have brought us out of error into truth,
out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death,
a death he freely accepted, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread;
and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, “Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.”

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

All

Therefore, Father, according to his command,
we remember his death,
we proclaim his resurrection,
we await his coming in glory;

Bishop

and we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, Lord of all;
presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts, that they may be the sacrament of the body of Christ and his blood of the new covenant.
Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we, made acceptable in him, may be sanctified by the Holy Spirit.

In the fullness of time, reconcile all things in Christ, and make them new, and bring us to that city of light
where you dwell with all your sons and daughters;
through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation,
the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation;
by whom, and with whom, and in whom, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all honour and glory are yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.

All

Amen.

Bishop
All

As our Saviour taught us, let us pray,
Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and for ever. Amen.

Breaking of the Bread
Bishop

We break the bread of life,

Music: Melody Johann Balthasar König (1691–1758); adapt. William Henry Havergal (1793–1870);

1. Blest are the pure in heart,
for they shall see our God;
the secret of the Lord is theirs,
their soul is Christ's abode.
2. still to the lowly soul
his presence doth impart,
and for a dwelling and a throne
chooseth the pure in heart.
3. Lord, we thy presence seek;
may ours this blessing be;
give us a pure and lowly heart,
a temple fit for thee.

Sending Out of the Disciples

Bishop

God of justice,
may we who have heard your word
and received new life at your table, bear witness to your truth in the world,
so that all may come to share in your kingdom.
We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the Lord
Amen.

All

All

We pray that José Luis, Brynn, Monte, and Amanda
may be to us godly examples in word and action,
in love and patience, and in holiness of life.
Grant that we, with them, may serve you now,
and always rejoice in your glory;
through Jesus Christ your Son, our Lord,
who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Closing Hymn

Lord, You Give the Great Commission (CP 433)

Text: Jeffery Rowthorn (1934–); Music: Cyril Vincent Taylor (1907–1991); ABBOT'S LEIGH

1. Lord, you give the great commission: "Heal the sick and preach the word."
Lest the Church neglect its mission and the gospel go unheard,
help us witness to your purpose with renewed integrity;
with the Spirit's gifts empower us for the work of ministry.
2. Lord, you call us to your service: "In my name baptize and teach."
That the world may trust your promise, life abundant meant for each,
give us all new fervor, draw us closer in community;
with the Spirit's gifts empower us for the work of ministry.
3. Lord, you bless with words assuring: "I am with you to the end."
Faith and hope and love restoring, may we serve as you intend,
and, amid the cares that claim us, hold in mind eternity;
with the Spirit's gifts empower us for the work of ministry.

The deacons dismiss the people with these words:

Let us go forth into the world,
rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

All

Thanks be to God.
