7-Disunity Instigator

Romans 12:9-21

1. What insight, principle or observation from this week's message did you find to be most helpful, eye opening or troubling? Please explain.

2. Describe an extremely difficult and stressful time of your life that was the result of disunity and conflict? Why is conflict so unsettling?

3. Read Romans 12:18. What relationships right now are most difficult to live in peace? As you think of conflict situations, is it easy for you to brush them off, thinking you have done everything you can? If so, why, if not, why not?

4. What are some of your "ya, but…" statements, when it comes to living in peace with others?

5. Read Romans 12:9-21. What about Verse 10 is crucial to being a person of peace? If you honored people more (especially those you are prone to have conflict with), do you think it would bring more peace? What about this command is really difficult for you?

6. Read Romans 12:19-20. Have you ever repaid evil with good? How did it turn out? What makes this so hard for us?

7. Alvin mentioned that, the path to peace is often a path of personal sacrifice, how have you experienced this?

8. In what relationships do you feel you need to especially focus on 'honoring' right now? In what relationship do you need to repay evil with good? What will you do?

9. Pray for each other.
