Completing the Qualified donees worksheet / Amounts provided to other organizations

List the name of each organization that received a gift from the charity. Do not list the name of an organization more than once. Do not enter names of persons who have received a benefit from the charity. For example, do not list the names of students who received a scholarship from the charity.

Name of organization: Enter the full name of the organization that received a gift from the charity.

Associated charity: Tick Yes if the organization is associated with the charity. Associated charities are two or more registered charities that have applied for and received this designation from the Charities Directorate. For more information, go to canada.ca/charities-giving, select A to Z index of topics for charities, then Glossary, and see Associated Charities.

BN/registration number: Give the organization's complete business number (BN), if it has one. A BN is assigned to organizations that have accounts with the Canada Revenue Agency.

City and Province/Territory: Enter the city, town, village, or other municipality and province or territory of the organization that received a gift from the charity. If the organization is outside the country, enter its full mailing address, including the country.

Amount of non-cash gifts: Enter the amount of all non-cash gifts the charity made to the organization. Amounts must be the fair market value of the gifts in Canadian dollars. Examples of non-cash gifts are property, such as land, artwork, equipment, securities, pharmaceuticals, and cultural and ecological property. For more information on fair market value, go to canada.ca/charities-giving, select A to Z index, and see Determining fair market value of non-cash gifts.

Total amount of gifts: Enter the total amount of all gifts (including gifts in kind) given to the organization, including the amount of all gifts intended for political activities, if applicable. Amounts must be in Canadian dollars.

Was any part of the gift intended for political activities? Tick Yes if any part of the gift was intended to be used by the recipient to carry out a political activity, and enter the amount. Amounts must be in Canadian dollars.

This question addresses the charity's intent for the gifts and not how the recipient will use them. The charity is not responsible for tracking and reporting on how the gifts were actually used. Even if the gift was not used for political activities, if the purpose of the gift was to fund a political activity, it should be reported in this field.

For more information on political activities, go to canada.ca/charities-giving, select Resources for charities and donors, and see Resources for charities about political activities.

You must give us complete information for each director/trustee and like official who, at any time during the fiscal period of this return, was a member of the charity's board of directors/trustees. Directors/trustees and like officials are persons who govern a registered charity. See the reverse for information on filling out this form.

Completing the Directors/Trustees and Like Officials Worksheet

Public information

Information from this column is available to the public.

Enter the last name, first name, and initial of the director/trustee or like official.

Term:

Start date: Enter the date the person started in the position.

End date: Enter the date the person left the position. If the person has not left the position, leave this field blank.

Position: Enter the title of the position being held. Each position is generally identified in an organization's governing documents (for example, president, treasurer, secretary). A registered charity may have other officials that have governing powers similar to those of a director or trustee. For example, a religious leader with some governing authority would be considered a like official.

At arm's length with other directors: Tick Yes if the person is at arm's length with all other directors/trustees or like officials.

At arm's length is a concept that describes a relationship in which two persons act independently of each other and are not related. Related persons are individuals who are related to each other by blood, marriage or common-law partnership, or adoption. It is also possible that individuals not related by a family connection, but by close business relations, may still be considered not at arm's length. For more information on arm's length, go to canada.ca/cra-forms, select Technical information, then Income Tax, see Income tax folios, select Series 1, then Folio 5 Transfer of Income, Property or Rights to Third Parties, and see Chapter 1 Related Persons Dealing at Arm's Length.

According to the Income Tax Act, circumstances in which the law requires or permits such information to be disclosed include a court order, warrant, or subpoena issued for a criminal proceeding under an act of Parliament or a legal proceeding relating to the administration or enforcement of the Income Tax Act, the Canada Pension Plan, the Unemployment Insurance Act, or the Employment Insurance Act, or any other act of Parliament or law of a province that allows a tax or duty to be imposed or collected.

Other circumstances in which we are required or permitted by law to disclose certain records include a request made under the authority of the Auditor General Act, a warrant issued by the Canadian Security Intelligence Service Act, and enquiries from the Department of Finance Canada for information to form or evaluate fiscal policy.

Residential address: In the proper spaces, enter the full home address, including the street number, street name, city (which could be a town, village, or other municipality), province or territory, and postal code of each director/trustee or like official.

Phone number: Enter the telephone number at which the person can be reached during the day.

Date of birth: Enter the person's date of birth so that the CRA is better able to identify the individuals who are responsible for managing the charity.

If the director/trustee or like official lives outside the country, enter the person's full mailing address, including the country.
