A Service of the Word

This liturgy is based on the

*Anglican Church of Canada Book of Alternative Services

Notes for Zoom participants: As we begin our service all voices will be muted. Those with speaking parts will unmute themselves. Please do respond to the people's part in your home, please do sing joyously when the hymn is played.

Please note that there are announcements in the leaflet following the service.

Land acknowledgement—David Fitzsimmons

As always, we will light a candle and ring a bell as our service begins.

Officiant        The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
                         the love of God,
                         and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
                         be with you all.

People            And also with you.

Come, let us sing to the Lord; * let us shout for joy to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving * and raise a loud shout to him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God, * and a great king above all gods.

In his hand are the caverns of the earth, * and the heights of the hills are his also.

The sea is his for he made it, * and his hands have moulded the dry land.

Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, * and kneel before the Lord our maker.

For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand. * Oh, that today you would hearken to his voice!

Collect of the Day

First Reading    1 Samuel 17:1 - 23, 32 - 49 Barbara Henshall

Hymn

Georgia Smith and Kate Fitzsimmons

I danced in the morning when the world was begun,
And I danced in the moon and the stars and the sun;
And I came down from heaven and I danced on the earth -
At Bethlehem I had my birth

REFRAIN: Dance then wherever you may be;

I am the Lord of the Dance, said he;
I'll lead you all wherever you may be,
I will lead you all in the dance, said he.

I danced on the Sabbath and I cured the lame;
The holy people said it was a shame;
They whipped and they stripped and they hung me high,
And they left me there on a cross to die. REFRAIN

I danced on a Friday when the sky turned black
it's hard to dance with the devil on your back;
They buried my body and they thought I'd gone
But I am the dance and I still go on. REFRAIN they cut me down and I leap up high:

I am the life that'll never, never die;
I'll live in you if you'll live in me

I am the Lord of the Dance, said he. REFRAIN

Psalm 9

LA Pauline Woods

9 The Lord will be a refuge for the oppressed, * a refuge in time of trouble.

10 Those who know your name will put their trust in you, * for you never forsake those who seek you, O Lord.

11 Sing praise to the Lord who dwells in Zion; * proclaim to the peoples the things he has done.

12 The avenger of blood will remember them; * he will not forget the cry of the afflicted.

13 Have pity on me, O Lord; * see the misery I suffer from those who hate me, O you who lift me up from the gate of death;

14 So that I may tell of all your praises and rejoice in your salvation * in the gates of the city of Zion.

15 The ungodly have fallen into the pit they dug, * and in the snare they set is their own foot caught.

16 The Lord is known by his acts of justice; * the wicked are trapped in the works of their own hands.

19 Rise up, O Lord, let not the ungodly have the upper-hand; * let them be judged before you.

20 Put fear upon them, O Lord; * let the ungodly know they are but mortal.

Hear O Israel

Hear, O Israel,

the Lord our God, the Lord is one.

Love the Lord your God with all your heart,

with all your soul,

with all your mind,

and with all your strength.

This is the first and the great commandment.

The second is like it:

Love your neighbour as yourself.

There is no commandment greater than these.

Hymn

Georgia Smith and Kate Fitzsimmons

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way;

When sorrows, like sea billows roll;

Whatever my lot, thou has taught me to say, It is well with my soul.

REFRAIN: It is well with my soul, It is well, it is well with my soul.

He lives - oh, the bliss of this glorious thought;

My sin, not in part, but the whole,

Is nailed to his cross and I bear it no more.

Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul. Refrain

And Lord, haste the day when our faith shall be sight,

The clouds be rolled back as a scroll,

The trumpet shall sound and the Lord shall descend;

Even so it is well with my soul. Refrain

Prayers of the People

Confession

Celebrant: Dear friends in Christ,

God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy;

God welcomes sinners and invites them to the table.

Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept.

Celebrant: Most merciful God,

All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

The Peace

A wave, a smile, a nod of the head are all fitting expressions of your intention for peace for yourself and for each other.

The peace of the Lord be with you all.

People: And also with you.

In Thanksgiving for all God's blessings in our lives we pray:

God of reconciliation and forgiveness, the saving work of Christ has made our peace with you. May that work grow toward its perfection in all we offer you this day. We ask this in his name. Amen.

officiant        As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

People (sung) Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom,
the power and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen

Glory to God

Whose power working in us

Can do infinitely more

Than we can ask or imagine.

Glory to God from generation to generation

In the Church and in Christ Jesus

Fore ever and ever. Amen.

Dismissal

LA                Go in peace and love to serve the Lord

People:        Thanks be to God.

Blessing

Why do we have dim sum in the church freezer?

It is from Ching Ho in honour of the Dragon Boat Festival. Share in Ching's cultural heritage and in the wonderful food. Help yourself to a package of food and the cooking instructions. You are welcome to make a donation in thanks but it is not required.

Dragon Boat Festival The Dragon Boat Festival (Simplified Chinese: 端午节; Traditional Chinese: 端午節) is a traditional holiday which occurs on the 5th day of the 5th month of the traditional Chinese calendar. One story best known in modern China holds that the festival commemorates the death of the poet and minister Qu Yuan (c.340–278 BC) of the ancient state of Chu during the Warring States period of the Zhou dynasty.[15] A cadet member of the Chu royal house, Qu served in high offices. However, when the king decided to ally with the increasingly powerful state of Qin, Qu was banished for opposing the alliance and even accused of treason.[15] During his exile, Qu Yuan wrote a great deal of poetry. Twenty-eight years later, Qin captured Ying, the Chu capital. In despair, Qu Yuan died by suicide by drowning himself in the Miluo River. It is said that the local people, who admired him, raced out in their boats to save him, or at least retrieve his body. This is said to have been the origin of dragon boat races. When his body could not be found, they dropped balls of sticky rice into the river so that the fish would eat them instead of Qu Yuan's body. This is said to be the origin of zongzi.[15]
