The Parent/Child Dedication Commitment

As you prepare to make this dedication before the Lord and this church family, it is important for you to clearly understand what you are committing to. At Community Church, we recognize that many parents are at different places in their spiritual journeys. Some are fully prepared to embrace these promises while others have questions. The affirmations below are the essence of the dedication you are about to make. Each parent needs to discern if he or she is ready to make this pledge. Promises should never be made casually, and once made, they are not to be broken. Parent/Child Dedication is a pledge to the following ideals:

- I have committed my life to Jesus Christ. I am trusting in Him alone for my salvation and am committed to obeying all that He teaches in the Bible.

- I recognize my child is a gift from God, an entrustment to be treasured, and I will take my responsibility as a parent seriously.

- We commit ourselves and our family to consistent and active participation in this church as a means to helping my whole family grow in their love of Christ.

- We promise to conduct our own lives according to the Scriptures so that our child may learn of the Lord Jesus through our example.

- We promise to instruct our child in our home in the ways of the Lord, to teach His Word, and to talk about his or her faith in Jesus when he/she reaches an age of understanding.

We ask that each parent initials the statements that they are able to make in good conscience. This statement must be signed at the bottom and turned in with the Parent/Child Dedication form (on the opposite side of this page.)
