

“Service and Reward in the Kingdom of God”

Matthew 19:27; 20:1-16

June 27, 2021

Questions for small group discussion:

1. Christians are commissioned to be God’s workers on this earth, share with your group what are some of the ways you can fulfill this commission in your life?
2. In the chaotic anti-Christian world we live in, how can you best serve the Lord and stay dedicated in the midst of challenges to our faith?
3. Share with each other your favourite parable of Jesus and why it’s important to you?
4. Jesus has called all believers to be his followers and obey his commandments. The Bible teaches us that Christ will reward us at the end of the age. How does this promise of Christ encourage you in your personal walk with Him?
5. In Matthew 19:27 we read: Peter was concerned about the reward for following Jesus. Jesus gave him assurance that they will receive a hundredfold for their service. How does this promise motivate you toward living with an eternal perspective and purpose?
6. Why is it important to study the parables of Jesus? Do parables of Christ make it easy for you to understand the Christian faith, or are they are not relevant in our day and time?
7. Our desire should be to stay dedicated to the Word of God. How do you think you can stay true to this desire?

“Service and Reward in the Kingdom of God”

Matthew 19:27; 20:1-16

June 27, 2021

Questions for small group discussion:

1. Christians are commissioned to be God’s workers on this earth, share with your group what are some of the ways you can fulfill this commission in your life?
2. In the chaotic anti-Christian world we live in, how can you best serve the Lord and stay dedicated in the midst of challenges to our faith?
3. Share with each other your favourite parable of Jesus and why it’s important to you?
4. Jesus has called all believers to be his followers and obey his commandments. The Bible teaches us that Christ will reward us at the end of the age. How does this promise of Christ encourage you in your personal walk with Him?
5. In Matthew 19:27 we read: Peter was concerned about the reward for following Jesus. Jesus gave him assurance that they will receive a hundredfold for their service. How does this promise motivate you toward living with an eternal perspective and purpose?
6. Why is it important to study the parables of Jesus? Do parables of Christ make it easy for you to understand the Christian faith, or are they are not relevant in our day and time?
7. Our desire should be to stay dedicated to the Word of God. How do you think you can stay true to this desire?