A Service of the Word

This liturgy is based on the

*Anglican Church of Canada Book of Alternative Services

Notes for Zoom participants: As we begin our service all voices will be muted. Those with speaking parts will unmute themselves. Please do respond to the people's part in your home, please do sing joyously when the hymn is played.

Please note that there are announcements in the leaflet following the service.

Land acknowledgement—David Fitzsimmons

As always, we will light a candle and ring a bell as our service begins.

Officiant        The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ,
                         the love of God,
                         and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
                         be with you all.

People            And also with you.

Come, let us sing to the Lord; * let us shout for joy to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving * and raise a loud shout to him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God, * and a great king above all gods.

In his hand are the caverns of the earth, * and the heights of the hills are his also.

The sea is his for he made it, * and his hands have moulded the dry land.

Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, * and kneel before the Lord our maker.

For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand. * Oh, that today you would hearken to his voice!

Collect of the Day

First Reading    2 Sam 1:1, 17-27    Arlene Smith

Hymn 460                      Georgia Smith and Kate Fitzsimmons

Lord, the light of your love is shining,
In the midst of the darkness shining;
Jesus, light of the world, shine upon us;
Set us free by the truth you now bring us,
Shine on me, shine on me.

REFRAIN; Shine, Jesus shine;
Fill this land with the Father's glory
Blaze, Spirit blaze: Set our hearts on fire.
Flow, river flow: Flood the nations with grace and mercy;
Send forth your word, Lord, And let there be light.

Lord, I come to your awesome presence, F rom the shadows into your radiance;
By the blood I may enter your brightness;
Search me, try me consume all my darkness,
Shine on me, shine on me. REFRAIN

As we gaze on your kingly brightness
So our faces display your likeness;
Every changing from glory to glory,
Mirrored here may our lives tell your story,
Shine on me, shine on me. REFRAIN

Psalm 130

LA Jane Jennings

1 Out of the depths have I called you, O Lord; Lord, hear my voice; *
let your ears consider well the voice of my supplication.

2 If you, Lord, were to note what is done amiss, * O Lord, who could stand?

3 For there is forgiveness with you; * therefore you shall be feared.

4 I wait for the Lord; my soul waits for him; * in his word is my hope.

5 My soul waits for the Lord, more than watchmen for the morning, *
more than watchmen for the morning.

6 O Israel, wait for the Lord, * for with the Lord there is mercy;

7 With him there is plenteous redemption, * and he shall redeem
Israel from all their sins.

Rescue us, O God for whom we wait, from the depths of depression and despair. May we trust in your mercy, know the fullness of your redemption, and share in the glory of your kingdom; through our Saviour Jesus Christ . Amen.

Sermon:

The Rev. David Fitzsimmons

Hear O Israel

Hear, O Israel,

the Lord our God, the Lord is one.

Love the Lord your God with all your heart,

with all your soul,

with all your mind,

and with all your strength.

This is the first and the great commandment.

The second is like it:

Love your neighbour as yourself.

There is no commandment greater than these.

Hymn 312

Georgia Smith and Kate Fitzsimmons

REFRAIN: Sing a new song unto the Lord; Let your song be sung from mountains high. Sing a new song unto the Lord, Singing alleluia.

Yahweh's people dance for joy. O come before the Lord

And play for him on glad tambourines And let your trumpet sound. Refrain Rise, o children, from your sleep Your Saviour now has come.

He has turned your sorrow to joy, And filled your soul with song.

Refrain

Glad my soul, for I have seen the glory of the Lord.

The trumpet sounds; The dead shall be raised.

I know my Saviour lives. Refrain.

Prayers of the People

Confession

Celebrant: Dear friends in Christ,

God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy;

God welcomes sinners and invites them to the table.

Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Silence is kept.

Celebrant: Most merciful God,

All we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

The Peace

A wave, a smile, a nod of the head are all fitting expressions of your intention for peace for yourself and for each other.

The peace of the Lord be with you all.

People: And also with you.

In Thanksgiving for all God's blessings in our lives we pray:

God of wisdom, receive all we offer you this day. Enrich our lives with the gifts of your Spirit, that we may follow the way of our Lord Jesus Christ, and serve one another in freedom. We ask this in his name officiant        As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

People (sung) Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial,
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom,
the power and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen

Glory to God

Whose power working in us

Can do infinitely more

Than we can ask or imagine.

Glory to God from generation to generation

In the Church and in Christ Jesus

Fore ever and ever. Amen.

Dismissal

LA                Go in peace and love to serve the Lord

People:        Thanks be to God.

Blessing

Why do we have dim sum in the church freezer?

It is from Ching Ho in honour of the Dragon Boat Festival. Share in Ching's cultural heritage and in the wonderful food. Help yourself to a package of food and the cooking instructions. You are welcome to make a donation in thanks but it is not required.

Dragon Boat Festival The Dragon Boat Festival (Simplified Chinese: 端午节; Traditional Chinese: 端午節) is a traditional holiday which occurs on the 5th day of the 5th month of the traditional Chinese calendar. One story best known in modern China holds that the festival commemorates the death of the poet and minister Qu Yuan (c.340–278 BC) of the ancient state of Chu during the Warring States period of the Zhou dynasty.[15] A cadet member of the Chu royal house, Qu served in high offices. However, when the king decided to ally with the increasingly powerful state of Qin, Qu was banished for opposing the alliance and even accused of treason.[15] During his exile, Qu Yuan wrote a great deal of poetry. Twenty-eight years later, Qin captured Ying, the Chu capital. In despair, Qu Yuan died by suicide by drowning himself in the Miluo River. It is said that the local people, who admired him, raced out in their boats to save him, or at least retrieve his body. This is said to have been the origin of dragon boat races. When his body could not be found, they dropped balls of sticky rice into the river so that the fish would eat them instead of Qu Yuan's body. This is said to be the origin of zongzi.[15]
