

“Truth & Reconciliation” Webinar Book List

compiled by Janice Whiteley

These are some of the books that people may find helpful in trying to get a good understanding of this difficult history:

- Seven Fallen Feathers - author: Tanya Talaga
- 21 Things You May not Know about the Indian Act (Helping Canadians Make Reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples a Reality) - author: Bob Joseph
- Braiding Sweetgrass - author: Robin W. Kimmerer
- Indian Horse - author: Richard Wagamese
- The Inconvenient Indian - author: Thomas King
- Highway of Tears - author: Jessica McDiarmid
- Five Little Indians - author: Michelle Good
- Up Ghost River - author: Edmond Metatawabin
- A National Crime - author: John S. Milloy
- From the Ashes - author: Jesse Thistle
- The Reason You Walk - author; Wab. Kinew
- UNDDRIP (document can be obtained/read online)
- The TRC report

An older book, but still worth the read: The Dispossessed - author: Geoffrey York

This list was compiled by Janice Whiteley, facilitator of the “Truth & Reconciliation” webinar at the 2021 Anglican Deacons Canada virtual conference. Janice Whiteley is an indigenous person who teaches nursing at Mohawk College in Hamilton, Ontario <https://www.mohawkcollege.ca/> and has had extensive experience in First Nations issues. She is also a candidate for ordination to the diaconate in the Anglican Diocese of Niagara.
