OLD BUSINESS

Service Planning/Changes/Ideas

A survey of the congregation the previous week found that 21 of the 29 responding preferred to start gathering again in July. 2 preferred August, and 6 September. Of those wanting to start in July, half wanted to start outside, and half inside; of those wanting to start later, 6 wanted outside and 2 inside. Parish Council decided to start gathering on July 11, outside, and be prepared to move inside as conditions and the sense of the congregation determine. Deacon Wally hopes to take holidays starting July 19th, and may not return until early October.

The inside of the church will be set up with chairs to demonstrate how we congregation would be seated once we begin services inside. There may be good suggestions for improvements, and the demonstration may help people better assess the risks of meeting inside.

After discussion, Sharleen was asked to draft a survey that would ask members of the congregation that, once we once again gather for the Sunday service: how many of the Sunday services each month should have the eucharist?
