

Appendix 10 – Clergy leader letter of support to the bishop

The clergy leader who has been most involved with the applicant during the discernment process writes a letter to the bishop indicating their personal discernment of the applicant's vocation. The clergy leader should also include comments on whether the applicant is meeting the various Criteria for Holy Orders, plus any recommendations for formation in areas where the applicant needs to grow and develop to become a fully effective minister in the Church.