There's still time for you to start your project. Contact us at info@bridgeschurch.net and we can get you set up (and help you come up with ideas if needed.) Be part of what God is doing here at Bridges and Bridging the Gap.

An Attack from Within

- Robin Zimmerman

Testimony hinges on the credibility of the witness.

God records the complete story: both the good and the bad throughout the Bible.
Examples of how He used imperfect people include
Moses, David, Solomon, and Peter.

A good example within the early church:

Joseph, a Levite from Cyprus, whom the apostles called Barnabas (which means "son of encouragement"), sold a field he owned and brought the money and put it at the apostles' feet. - Acts 4:36-37

When external opposition failed to disrupt the Church,
Satan launched an attack from within.

A bad example within the early church:

Ananias and Sapphira (Acts 5:1-11)

Why did Ananias and Sapphira lie?

Integrity isn't about being perfect; it's about being authentic.

Why was the penalty so severe, resulting in death?
The fear of God and the consequences of sin serve as a deterrent to sin.

Where are we guilty of "holding back" from God?
Our time? Our money? Our commitment?
