“WALKING JUSTLY”
A HYMN FESTIVAL FOR OUR TIMES

Anawim: Mark Russom; Priest: The Dean; Narrator: Michael Bloss
Organ: Michael Bloss

A hymn or song of praise reminds us of who God is and what we have been promised. It helps us to put word and emotion around a sense that our faith is fueled by statements which often can only be communicated through emotion to be felt by the soul. And so, a hymn festival is an occasion centered on these hymns and songs of praise— songs sung in community gathering our prayer and praises into one.

“Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together. One of them, an expert in the law, tested him with this question: “Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?”

Jesus replied: “‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.’ This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: ‘Love your neighbour as yourself.’ All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.”

Words of Welcome and Introduction

Prayer (all respond at the bold text)

Creator God,
because you make all that draws forth our praise
and the forms in which to express it,
we praise you.
Because you make artists of us all,
awakening courage to look again at what is taken for granted,
grace to share these insights with others,
vision to reveal the future already in being,
we praise you.
Because you form your Word among us,
and in your great work embrace all human experience,
even death itself, inspiring our resurrection song,
we praise you. Yours is the glory. Amen.

 Hymn – What does the Lord require

Text: Labert F. Bayly (1949), based on Micah 6: 6-8

Music: Erik Routley (1968). SHARPTHORNE

What does the Lord re - quire for praise and of - fer - ing?
 Ru - lers of earth give ear should you not jus - tice know?
 All who gain wealth by trade for whom the wor - ker toils,
 How shall our life ful - fill God's law so hard and high?
 What sa - cri - fice, de - sire, or tri - bute bid you bring? —
 Will God your plead - ing hear while crime and cruel - ty grow? —

Prayer of Parting (said by all)

God of majesty, whom saints and angels delight to worship in heaven:

Be with all your people who employ art and music for your praise, that with joy we on earth may glimpse your beauty; and bring us to the fulfillment of that hope of perfection which will be ours as we stand before your unveiled glory.

We pray in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Prayer for People Facing Great Uncertainty

God of the present moment,
God who in Jesus stills the storm and soothes the frantic heart;
bring hope and courage to all who wait or work in uncertainty.
Bring hope that you will make them the equal of whatever lies ahead.
Bring them courage to endure what cannot be avoided,
for your will is health and wholeness;
you are God, and we need you. Amen.

The Dismissal (all respond with the bold text)

The love that raised Jesus from the dead be at work within you.
Let us go in peace to love and serve the Lord!

In the name of Christ. Amen.
