"The LORD himself goes before you and will be with you; He will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged." Deuteronomy 31:8 (NKJV)

Trusting someone can be very difficult. It often can take years for us to fully trust another person. Trust can be as simple as knowing the next car you meet, the driver will remain on their side of the road, or as complex as a lifetime of trust within a marriage. God's Word is to be trusted. He has promised to go before us, to lead us and prepare the way we take, even when we let Him down. He has promised to be with us on our journey through life and to stay with us through all the circumstances of life - even during those times when we prove faithless. God has promised never to leave us alone and one day, He will take us with Himself forever. God's Word is to be trusted. God's Word is as trustworthy today as it was in the times of Moses.

God makes many promises throughout Scripture. From the first daylight in Genesis Chapter 1, to the Lamb of God as the Light of the World in Revelation Chapter 21, God's promises can be seen throughout all scripture. The underlying foundation to any promise, is the ability to trust its source, and to know, without a doubt, what has been stated will be fulfilled. Just as God promised in Deuteronomy 31, "that He would never leave us," so we find in John 14:6, "that God is the way, the truth, and the life."

Over the next several weeks, during morning worship, we will begin a series on God's Promises to us as believers, and God's promises to unbelievers. Come, as we read and study the Word of God as a family.

In Christ, Chris
