Worship Service

Places of Worship during a worship service are considered Out-of-Scope for the Restriction Exemption Policy.

This means that we will not be checking proof of vaccination or negative Covid test to attend worship.

This does mean the following restrictions apply:

- the number of people in attendance does not exceed 75 people (8 8.1)
- people must remain in a cohort and physically distance of 2 metres to other people/cohorts. (8 8.2)
- people must be symptom free
- people must wear a mask the entire time they are indoors except during communion

Activity Other than Worship Service

According to the Restriction Exemption Program activities outside of worship are In-Scope.

Church of the Cross is declaring participation in the REP

This applies but is not limited to:

- rental groups
- meetings
- social groups
- adult recreation
- wedding and funerals
- private social events

Compliance with REP

To enter the building, all persons:

- must be symptom free;
- must wear a mask for the entire time they are in the building;
- sign in/attendance taken;
- all people aged 12 and over must show proof of vaccination by showing one of the following:

 - full vaccination (two doses) required after October 25

- The COVID-19 test must be either a nucleic acid amplification test (NAAT), which includes PCR tests, or an antigen test, including rapid antigen tests

Implementation

Each group meeting within the church will be required to:

- Designate a group leader to ensure
 - protocols are being observed
 - take attendance/collect sign in information
 - check vaccination record/negative test.
 - Submit report in Elvanto declaring that the above were completed
- Each member of the group must comply with each of the requirements in the new protocols or exit the building

“LIFT HIGH THE CROSS”

- Each group must schedule their gathering with the church office to ensure physical distancing can be achieved

Personal Information

ELCoC has chosen not to keep personal information regarding REP. This means that each time a person enters the building for non-worship activity, they will be required to show proof of vaccination/negative covid test.

Non-adherence

As a facility that has declared participation in the REP all of our rental and internal activities must also comply with REP.

- Each group has been made aware of the building declaring REP
- Each group has been forwarded the most accurate information possible

Should an individual not comply with the protocols and restrictions put in place by the Chief Medical Officer and ELCoC

- That individual will be asked to leave promptly and/or turned away at the door
- The only acceptable exemptions to the protocols and restrictions are outlined in the CMOH Order 44-2021

Should a group not comply with the protocols and restrictions put in place by the Chief Medical Officer and ELCoC

- That group will not be allowed to meet again until the CMOH Order 44-2021 is lifted.

Non-adherence to the above outlined policy is a serious offense as ELCoC is held responsible for all of the actions within our walls. Alberta Health Services and police units in Alberta are able to enforce the requirements of this program. Additionally, public complaints will support increased compliance and enforcement efforts. If operators are not complying with these requirements or the current public health restrictions, then enforcement and prosecution may result in fines up to $100,000 (for a first offence).
