

Stories from the Legislative Library!

Join the Parliamentary Education Office and the Legislative Library for free learning programs offered over Zoom. Please book ahead by contacting tours@leg.bc.ca

Documents Towards Democracy:

A trip into BC history, as told by ten remarkable items from the Legislative Library shelves.

September 23 and November 4, 18, and 25 at 2:00 pm. One hour.

Maces Past and Present:

From the Middle Ages to today, learn about these opulent symbols of parliamentary authority. October 13, 2:00 pm. 45 minutes.

Politics & Holidays of Charles Dickens:

Dickens: Best known for his novels, Dickens was also a parliamentary reporter whose ideas changed Britain and Canada.

December 15, 2:00 pm. 45 minutes.

