

Have you ever been inspired to start a ministry or a program in the community in which your church is planted, but quickly realized you did not have the money to financially support it? Has the pandemic negatively impacted your church budgets but the work in the community has become more of a necessity? Well, there is hope in times such as these!

This 4-part online course will provide you with the tools you need to confidently search, find, write and manage various private & government funded grants
