We meet in the presence of the living God

All The living God who creates us and all that is.

God's Holy Spirit breathes in and through us

All The Holy Spirit who transforms us and all life.

Presider In this time and place

Together, one people of God.

All In the name of God, Source of all being, Eternal Word and Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Following the ringing of the bell, a moment of silence is kept

Processional Hymn For the healing of the nations

stand

For the healing of the nations, God we pray with one accord;
for a just and equal sharing of the things that earth affords.
To a life of love in action help us rise and pledge our word.

Lead us, Father into freedom; from despair your world release, that, redeemed from war and hatred, all may come and go in peace.
Show us how through care and goodness fear will die and hope increase.

All that kills abundant living, let it from the earth be banned:
pride of status, race or schooling, dogmas that obscure your plan.
In the common quest for justice, may we hallow life's brief span.

You, Creator God, have written your great name on numankind;
for our growing in your likeness, bring the life of Christ to mind;
that by our response and service earth its destiny may find.

The Presider greets the community

Presider The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

All And also with you.

Presider Almighty God,

All to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn Glory to God on high

Glory to God on high, and peace to all on earth.
We worship you, we give you thanks, our heavenly King.
We give you praise, almighty God and Father, blessed in glory bright.

Our Saviour, Jesus Christ, the Father's only Son,
the sacrificial Lamb, who saves the world from sin, have mercy Lord. Beside the Father's hand enthroned, now hear our prayer.

You only are the Lord. You only are most high.
You only are the holy one, Lord Jesus Christ.
And now you reign with Father and with Spirit one in glorious light.

The Collect

Presider Let us pray

Presider Almighty God,

All who inspired Luke the physician to proclaim the love and healing power of your Son, give your Church, by the grace of the Spirit and the medicine of the gospel, the same love and power to heal; through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen. Anglican Church of Canada

Children's Talk

Hear God's Word, a flame that lights our path each day.

See God's Word, reflected in our lives.

Live God's Word, throughout each day, in work and play.

God's own Word, keeps us alive.

(Music: Lynne Graham: Lyrics: Lynley Lewis)

The Proclamation of the Word

The Reading from the Book of Sirach (38 : 1 – 4, 6 – 10, 12 – 14)

Linda Tinker Sit

Honor physicians for their services, for the Lord created them; <sup>2</sup>for their gift of healing comes from the Most High, and they are rewarded by the king. <sup>3</sup>The skill of physicians makes them distinguished, and in the presence of the great they are admired.

<sup>4</sup>The Lord created medicines out of the earth, and the sensible will not despise them.

<sup>6</sup> And he gave skill to human beings that he might be glorified in his marvelous works.
<sup>7</sup> By them the physician heals and takes away pain; <sup>8</sup> the pharmacist makes a mixture from them. God's works will never be finished; and from him health spreads over all the earth. <sup>9</sup> My child, when you are ill, do not delay, but pray to the Lord, and he will heal you. <sup>10</sup> Give up your faults and direct your hands rightly, and cleanse your heart from all sin.

<sup>12</sup> Then give the physician his place, for the Lord created him; do not let him leave you, for you need him. <sup>13</sup> There may come a time when recovery lies in the hands of physicians, <sup>14</sup> for they too pray to the Lord that he grant them success in diagnosis and in healing, for the sake of preserving life.

Reader Holy Word. Holy Wisdom.

All Thanks be to God.

3 The Lord heals the brokenhearted

6 The Lord lifts up the lowly, but casts the wicked to the ground.

All Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>14</sup> Then Jesus, filled with the power of the Spirit, returned to Galilee, and a report about him spread through all the surrounding country. <sup>15</sup> He began to teach in their synagogues and was praised by everyone.

<sup>16</sup> When he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, he went to the synagogue on the sabbath day, as was his custom. He stood up to read, <sup>17</sup> and the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was given to him. He unrolled the scroll and found the place where it was written:

<sup>18</sup> “The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, <sup>19</sup> to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.”

<sup>20</sup> And he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fixed on him. <sup>21</sup> Then he began to say to them, “Today this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing.”

A Blessing for Health Care Workers

Blessed are the ones who cannot be isolated.

Blessed are all the healthcare workers.

Blessed are the hands that are raw from scrubbing and sanitizing, and the hands for healing, comforting, and supporting.

Blessed are the shoulders that carry the weight of life and death.

Blessed are the feet that are aching from standing at the bedside, running between rooms, and answering phones.

Blessed are the hearts that are frightened and breaking.

Blessed are the parents and grandparents, siblings, partners and friends, who cannot go home.

Blessed are the families who become isolated from each other, the ones who sacrifice their own comfort so that others need not be alone in their suffering.

Blessed are the sick and the dying, those who bear the image of God before us.

Blessed are those who look upon their work as sacred, as a gift at this time of overwhelming demand.

Blessed are those who lack the space to process all what lies ahead and may others bear their burden with them.

Blessed are the ones who are found weeping in corners of our emergency rooms, our hospitals, our primary cares, our outpatient centers so that we might see a strong face to greet our need.

Blessed are those who weep openly with us, so that even our tears have companions.

Blessed are you, O God: quietly holding each of these healthcare workers along the way. Come quickly, abide unceasingly. Love them while they see the worst, grant them hope to continue their vocation with compassionate care for themselves as much as for others. Amen.

Hymn Heal us, O God

Heal us, O God, bring peace to our hearts; give us the balm we need.
Heal us, Creator, be for us strength, strength to admit and strength to forgive.
Justice and truth move deep in our midst, deep in our hearts to stay.

Free us, O God, sow love in our hearts; give us the eyes to see.
We are all bound, all one family, set right the wrongs that follow us still.
Justice and truth cleave deep in our hearts, deep in our lives to stay.

Help us, O God, to rise above strife; give us the hearts to feel.
Help us renew our faith in the world, each of us does our part hand in hand.
Justice and truth must move in our midst. Heal all our broken parts.

Lyrics: Lynley Lewis / Music: Dakota hymn; adapt. Joseph R Renville (1779 – 1846); perc. arr. Brian Barlow (1952 -) CP 407

Confession and Absolution

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbour.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Presider Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness and keep you in eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

All Amen.

Offertory hymn When God restored our common life

When God restored our common life, our hope, our liberty, at first it seemed a passing dream, a waking fantasy.
A shock of joy swept over us, for we had wept so long;
the seeds we watered once with tears sprang up into a song.

We went forth weeping, sowing seeds in hard, unyielding soil.
With laughing hearts we carry home the fruit of all our toil.
We praise the one who gave the growth, with voices full and strong
the seeds we watered once with tears sprang up into a song.

Great liberating God, we pray for all who are oppressed.
May those who long for what is right with justice now be blessed.
We pray for those who mourn this day, and all who suffer wrong;
may seeds they water now with tears spring up into a song.

The Celebration of the Eucharist

Prayer over the Gifts

Stand

Presider God of mercy and grace, the eyes of all wait upon you, and you open your hand in blessing. Fill us with good things at your table, so that we may come to the help of all in need, through Jesus Christ, our redeemer and Lord.

All Amen. Anglican Church of Canada

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in the breaking of bread.

Presider The Lord be with you.

All And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

All We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

All It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Presider Holy God, Lover of creation, we give you thanks and praise for the ocean of your steadfast love you bear us and place the song of your spirit in our hearts. When we turn from your love and defile the earth, you do not abandon us. Your Spirit speaks through Huldah and Micah, through prophets, sages, and saints in every age, to confront our sin and reveal the vision of your new creation. Joining in the song of the universe we proclaim your glory saying (singing)

Sanctus        Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Presider Gracious God, in the fullness of time, you sent Jesus the Christ to share our fragile humanity. Through Jesus' life, death, and resurrection you open the path from brokenness to health, from fear to trust, from pride and conceit to reverence for you. Rejected by a world that could not bear the Gospel of life, Jesus knew death was near. His head anointed for burial by an unknown woman, Jesus gathered together those who loved him. He took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it and gave it to his friends, saying, "Take and eat: this is my body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper Jesus took the cup of wine, gave you thanks and said, "Drink this, all of you, this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." And now we gather at this table in response to his commandment, to share the bread and cup of Christ's undying love, and to proclaim our faith.

All                    Christ has died
Christ is risen
Christ will come again

Presider Breathe your Holy Spirit, the wisdom of the universe, upon these gifts that we bring to you: this bread, this cup, ourselves, our souls and bodies, that we may be signs of your love for all the world and ministers of your transforming purpose.

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory is yours, Creator of all, and we bless your holy name for ever.

People Amen.

The Lord's Prayer

Presider Gathering our prayers and praises into one, let us pray as our Saviour taught us, in the language closest to your heart,

All        Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Presider We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

People We, being many, are one body for we all share in the one bread.

The Communion

Presider The gifts of God for the people of God.

All        Thanks be to God.

(Covid precaution - Communion is offered in bread only. Please maintain 2 metres between as you come forward. Take the wafer back to the pew before consuming)

If you are not physically receiving Communion, then offer this prayer ....

In union, O God, with all your faithful people gathered wherever the eucharist is celebrated this day, I offer you praise and thanksgiving for creation and all the blessings of this life, for the redemption given to us through the life, death, and resurrection of Christ, and for the means of grace and the hope of glory. I pray you come into my heart, my soul and my mind. Let nothing separate me from you. May I serve you in this life until, by your grace, I come to your promised reign of justice and peace; through Christ and in the unity of the Spirit. Amen.

Community Announcements

Sit

Closing Hymn    Let streams of living justice flow

stand

Let streams of living justice flow down upon the earth;

give freedom's light to captives, let all the poor have worth.

The hungry's hands are pleading, the workers claim their rights, the mourners long for laughter, the blinded seek for sight.

Make liberty a beacon, strike down the iron power;

abolish ancient vengeance: proclaim your people's hour.

For healing of the nations, for peace that will not end, for love that makes us lovers, God grant us grace to mend.

Weave our varied gifts together; knit our lives as they are spun;

on your loom of time enroll us till our thread of life is run.

O great Weaver of our fabric, bind church and world in one;

dye our texture with your radiance, light our colours with your sun.

Your city's built to music; we are the stones you seek;
your harmony is language: we are the words you speak.
Our faith we find in service, our hope in other's dreams, our love in hand of neighbour: our homeland brightly gleams.
Inscribe our hearts with justice; your way – the path untried;
your truth – the heart of stranger; your life – the Crucified.

Hello all St. Clement's Parents and Children,
St. Clement's continues to cherish members of all ages including children. We are planning a careful "restart" of our Children's Ministry while we gauge how families feel about a return to more typical church school. For at least the rest of September - maybe longer depending on what parents and children prefer - we will provide children with activity bags to take back to their pews or another designated area upstairs to work/play with during the service. Children can take any colouring or activities completed with them at the end of the service but will be asked to leave the activity bag and other contents (e.g. toys, craft supplies, crayons etc.) behind to be reused in future weeks. Anyone who has questions/thoughts about or would like to help with the Children's Ministry at St. Clement's is encouraged to contact Helen or Delayne.

Some special news for today!

In 2009 St Clement's sponsored 2 families from Burma/Myanmar. Kler started off working in a recycling depot in Surrey, and on January 31st, 2014 they became Canadian citizens. They bought a house together with 18 other family members. Then in 2015 Kler travelled back to Burma to see his father shortly before he died. This morning at 10am in the Bethesda Karen Baptist Church, Chilliwack, Kler is being Ordained as minister. Please pray and give thanks to God for Kler and his family as they celebrate this milestone in their lives in Canada.
