PRAYER REQUESTS: 10.31.2021

Many will remember Steve and Sherie Howell from their time attending NFBC. Steve is serving currently as VP of Strategic partnerships with ZimZam Global. As some of you are aware, Sherie had been dealing with severe health issues for quite a while. Sherie passed away earlier this week.

Please continue to intercede for Doug Weaver and the severe trouble with his legs.

Karen Slagle has asked for prayer for her aunt Rose Yoder, who is dealing with covid. Her heart is not in good condition. She has a pacemaker and defibrillator. So far she is still at home. She does know Jesus as her Lord. And also to pray for Lloyd. He has not felt well for the last couple of weeks and has trouble getting his breath and is very weak.

Congratulations to Nate and Sarah (Stump) DeNicola on the arrival/birth of Macie Elizabeth DeNicola on October 20th. And congratulations to grandparents Andy and Brigitte Stump and great grandparents Rod and Maribeth Stump. Macie was 7 pounds 9 oz., and 20 inches long.

Brigitte and Andy Stump are asking for prayer for healing for their daughter-in-law, Jaclyn Stump. She has a family history of breast cancer and has some lumps that need additional testing. Thank you so much.

Our Congregational Business Meeting will be held NEXT Sunday, November 7, 2021. Lunch will be provided at 11:30am, with the business meeting following.

Nominating Committee is looking for 2022 chair for Treasurer. If you are interested in chairing in 2022, please contact Maynard at 574-596-7040.

2022 proposed budget and year end report packets are available at the table by the resource board.
