Twenty-fourth Sunday
after Pentecost
November 7, 2021

Today's lessons:

- Ruth 3:1–5; 4:13–17 Naomi has lost her husband, and now both her sons have died, too. All she has left is her daughter-in-law Ruth who takes care of her like a real daughter. In turn, Naomi makes sure that Ruth gets a good husband. And so Ruth becomes the great-grandmother of King David...
- Psalms 127 Even what we see as our very own achievements – like our home and our family – is ours only because God gives it to us and continues to protect it.
- Hebrews 9:24–28 Jesus Christ gave himself as a sacrifice for our sin, once for all. But his work is only completed once he has saved all who wait for him.
- Mark 12:38–44 According to Jesus, the poor widow, putting a penny in the offering, is a greater giver than rich people who give large amounts of money.

What Jesus offers

Jesus' offering is special because he doesn't just offer something – however valuable – but himself, completely.

If you decipher these words and phrases from today's epistle lesson, they tell you what else is different about Jesus' offering.

JESUS' ANCESTORS

Our Old Testament lesson today tells us a story that happened in Jesus' family, many generations back. But the story of Ruth was not forgotten: in Jesus' genealogy in Matthew 1, Ruth is remembered in verse 5.

With this cross-word you can test how much you know about Jesus' family history.
