A Service of the Word

This liturgy is based on the *Anglican Church of Canada Book of Alternative Services

We are still using safe practises. Social distancing is required, masks are required, there is no congregational singing. At the appropriate time Communion will be brought to you in your place.

Please note that there are announcements in the leaflet following the service.

Land acknowledgement—David Fitzsimmons

Celebrant The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit,
be with you all.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Almighty God,

All to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen

Collect of the Day

127

LA Pauline Woods

Unless the Lord builds the house, * their labour is in vain who build it.

2 Unless the Lord watches over the city, * in vain the watchman keeps his vigil.

3 It is in vain that you rise so early and go to bed so late; * vain, too, to eat the bread of toil, for he gives to his beloved sleep.

4 Children are a heritage from the Lord, * and the fruit of the womb is a gift.

5 Like arrows in the hand of a warrior * are the children of one's youth.

6 Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them! * he shall not be put to shame when he contends with his enemies in the gate.

Gospel: Mark 10:46-52

The Rev. David Fitzsimmons

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. Mark

Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ

The Gospel of Christ.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ

Sermon:

Hymn 337

Georgia Smith and Kate Fitzsimmons

1 God, your glorious presence draws us to adore you,
and with awe appear before you.
In your holy temple
all keep mystic silence, prostrate lie with deepest reverence.

You alone
God we own,
you our God and Saviour:
praise your name for ever.

2 In God's glorious presence hear the harps resounding!
See the hosts the throne surrounding!
"Holy, holy, holy,"

hear the hymn ascending, angels, saints, their voices blending!

Bow your ear
to us here:
hear, O Christ, the praises that your church now raises.

3 Fount of every blessing, purify my spirit,
trusting only in your merit.
Like the holy angels who behold your splendour, may I ceaseless worship render.

Let your will ever still rule your church terrestrial, as the hosts celestial.

We remember those among us who have fought and worked for peace:

We invite those who have served in Canada's Armed Forces, Merchant Marine, or Police services to stand.

We invite those present in person and by zoom to name aloud those among their family and friends who have served in war time, a police action, or a peacekeeping mission.

We invite those who have served at home during wartime, engaged in any work to serve the cause of peace to stand.

We invite those present in person or by zoom to name aloud family and friends who have served at home, engaged in any work for the cause of peace.

Silence

Act of Remembrance

The Peace

We return to a monastic custom as we turn to the centre of the room and bow to others, reminding ourselves that each of us is made In the image of God.

The peace of the Lord be with you all.

People: And also with you.

Hymn

Georgia Smith and Kate Fitzsimmons

"I was there to hear your borning cry,
I'll be there when you are old.
I rejoiced the day you were baptized,
to see your life unfold.
I was there when you were but a child,
with a faith to suit you well;
In a blaze of light you wandered off to find where demons dwell."

"When you heard the wonder of the Word
I was there to cheer you on;
You were raised to praise the living Lord,
to whom you now belong.
If you find someone to share your time and you join your hearts as one, I'll be there to make your verses rhyme from dusk 'till rising sun."
In the middle ages of your life, not too old, no longer young,
I'll be there to guide you through the night,
complete what I've begun.
When the evening gently closes in,
and you shut your weary eyes, I'll be there as I have always been with just one more surprise."

"I was there to hear your borning cry,
I'll be there when you are old.
I rejoiced the day you were baptized,
to see your life unfold."

The Altar is prepared and we offer our gifts of bread and wine and ourselves in the words of the prayer:

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise

The priest continues with the Eucharistic Prayer.

... we give thanks and raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

All Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory is yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.

People Amen

officiant As our Saviour taught us, let us pray.

People Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial, and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom,
the power and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen

Celebrant We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

People We being many are one body, for we all share in the one bread

Communion is distributed by the clergy to the people where they are seated or standing in their place.

For those present on Zoom this prayer of Spiritual Communion may be used.

In union, O God, with all your faithful people gathered wherever the eucharist is celebrated this day, I offer you praise and thanksgiving for creation and all the blessings of this life, for the redemption given to us through the life, death and resurrection of Christ, and for the means of grace and the hope of glory. I pray you come into my heart, my soul and my mind. Let nothing separate me from you. May I serve you in this life until, by your grace, I come to your promised reign of justice and peace; through Christ and in the unity of the Spirit. Amen.

When all have received the priest gives thanks.

Glory to God

Whose power working in us

Can do infinitely more

Than we can ask or imagine.

Glory to God from generation to generation

In the Church and in Christ Jesus

Forever and ever. Amen.

For public service workers who continue their many roles serving the people of Campbell River

For those seeking healing and hope—names as given

For all who have survived residential school, those still bear the wounds, for all who did not return, and for all who grieve.

Those who have died Ron Ashcroft

Prayer always works whether we get the result we hoped for or not. Just as Jesus, in the last hours of his earthly life, said, not my will but yours be done, so should our prayers be offered in that same spirit. God is always on the side of life and hope. When we pray with trust and hope we can expect God to be at work.

The parish of St Peter Anglican Church and St Saviour Anglican Church is located on the unceded, traditional territory of the Ligwi'da'xw people: the We Wai Kai, Wei Wai Kum, and Kwiakah First Nations; the unceded traditional territory of the Klahoose First Nation; the unceded traditional territory of the K'omoks First Nation and the unceded traditional territory of the Homalco First Nation. We seek a new relationship with the first peoples here; one based on honour and respect. We pray that we may live more deeply into the Calls to Action of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission.
