

DOUG SHAFER

I don't really know IF I ever had any disbeliefs because I attended church as far back as kindergarten my mom took us every Sunday to Sunday school and church, as I grew up started to attend high school hanging out with a bunch of friends on the weekend, we would smoke cigarettes, drink beer, just party, ~~my~~ my dad was always working my mom was a stay@ home mom, my dad drank and smoked, my mom and I split up for 2 weeks, because of his drinking dad \rightarrow my mom got him finally to go to church with us and after a short time of him attending church, he went to the altar and asked the lord into his heart and it wasn't long after he gave up drinking and smoking cold turkey. This was when I got on the softball team at church and became the pitcher, and in my senior year of H.S. July I accepted the lord as my savior and was baptized, and when I tell you I felt like a million bucks and that I had no worries about anything (I felt free) I would always try to talk to my friends about Jesus but most ^{of} them didn't want to hear about it.

Like in John 6:63-65 says: 63 It is the spirit who gives life; the flesh profits nothing. The words I speak to you are spirit, and they are life.

64; But there are some of you who do not believe, for Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who would betray him.

65; And He said, "Therefore I have said to you that no one can come to me unless It has been granted to him by my Father."
Amen
