Thought for the week:

“An apology is a friendship preserver, is often a debt of honor, is never a sign of weakness, is an antidote for hatred, costs nothing but one’s pride, always saves more than it costs, is a device needed in every home.

SERMON NOTES

Sermon: “Ephesians: Marriage in Christ”

Scripture: Ephesians 5:17-33

Submission is a misused, abused, and frowned upon term currently. Submission in Christ is for men and women and flows naturally out of our life IN CHRIST. If you can’t submit (to Christ), you can’t be a Christian.
